Presentation of John Agulon, chaplain, to the vicarage of Merston by Tuttebury in the diocese of Coventry and Lichfield, void by the resignation of Ive Stoke, and in the king's gift by reason of the alien priory of Tuttebury being in his hand on account of the war with France.

Signification to R. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, of the royal assent to the election of Roger Cotson, monk of the house and sub-prior, as prior of Coventry.

Grant, during pleasure, as of the king's alms, to the Friars Minor of 20l. at the Exchequer every third year for the celebration at Whitsuntide of their general chapter, payable at Easter next before the celebration, and of 15l. at the Exchequer every year for the celebration of their provincial chapter, as former kings have done.

Pardon, at the supplication of the duchess of Ireland, to William de Lancaster, son of William de Lancaster, knight, for killing Nicholas Dobson at Schallyng in Skirwuth, on Wednesday the feast of St. Barnabas in the fifteenth year, also indicted for killing him at Scalynge on Tuesday after Trinity in the fifteenth year.

Exemplification, at the request of John Fyloll and Margaret, his wife, kinswoman of the within-named Joan, daughter and heir of John Wallisch, son and heir of Roger Wallisch, of (1) an inquisition dated at Warham, Saturday after St. Denis, 50 Edward III, before John atte Hale, escheator in Dorset, to the effect that the said John de Wallisch died on Friday before SS. Simon and Jude, 19 Edward III, seised in his demesne as of fee of the manor of Langton Wallisch in Purbyk, and that Joan, his daughter, is his next heir, aged 9 months, and that the manor with the salt-pits of Middelbere is worth 12l. 4s. a year, and is held of the king by knight service, and that Robert, parson of Stoke, hold 18 acres of meadow, parcel of the manor, by the service of a rose, by demise of the said Roger, without licence of the king, and the meadow is worth 13s. 1d. a year (Inquisitions post mortem, 50 Edward III, Second Numbers, No. 67), and (2) a certificate returned into Chancery by the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer to the effect that on searching the account of John Hale, late escheator in Somerset and Dorset, in respect of the issues in Dorset from 9 December, 19 Edward III, until 3 November following, it is thus noted: The said escheator accounts for no issues of the manor of Langton in Purbyk, late of John Wallisch, who held of the king in chief elsewhere when he died, that manor being extended at 12l. 4d. a year, &c. By writ dated 27 February, 50 Edward III, the premises were taken into the king's hand, and subsequently the wardship of the manor was granted to Henry Yevle of London, during the minority of the heir.

Grant, for life, to the king's esquire Vierebras de Vertaing of 40 marks a year at the Exchequer.

Presentation of Thomas Wynscote, vicar of Batheneston in the diocese of Bath and Wells, to the church of Werkley in the diocese of Exeter, on an exchange with Laurence Wityle.

Presentation of John Lewys to the parish church of Quaynton in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of the wardship of the land and heir of Edmund de Missenden, knight, tenant in chief.