Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Thomas de Aston, knight, the elder, of two messuages, one toft, eight acres of land, one of meadow, five of pasture, and 2s. of rent from each of the following persons, from their lands and tenements, viz. Richard de Alderwych, Richard Wynd, Henry Wrasteler, William Marchall, Roger Mollesley, Henry atte Walkmullene, Thomas Marchall, William de Staresmore, Richard de Ordeseye and Robert le Smyth, 12d. of rent from lands and tenements of Warin de Walton, and a moiety of three messuages, three acres of meadow and one of pasture in Walsale, Russhale, Caldemore, Gorseote and Alderwych, not held in chief, the messuages, eight acres of land and meadow, pasture and moiety aforesaid being of the yearly value of 20s. as found by inquisition taken by Aymor Lichefeld, escheator in the county of Stafford, to Robert Marchall, chaplain, and his successors, for celebrating masses and other divine services in Walsale church for the fraternity of the gild of St. John Baptist, in part satisfaction, viz. 5 marks, of a licence granted to the said Thomas for the alienation to the said Robert and his successors of lands or rents of the yearly value of 10 marks. (Teste custode.)

Licence, for 100s. paid to the king by the abbot of St. Mary's, Fourneys, for William de Merton of Fourneys, goldsmith, to permit the said abbot and convent and their successors to dig and mine in 400 acres of the said William's land in Dalton, Orgrave and Merton in Fourneys, held of the abbot in chief, and in any part thereof, except places now built upon and gardens, and to carry away at their pleasure all minerals therefrom, and to wash and dispose of the same, with free ingress and egress and all necessary easements, the said William and his heirs and assigns being henceforth debarred from mining therein or carrying away mineral therefrom; and licence for the said abbot and convent and their successors to mine as above, notwithstanding the statute of mortmain. (Teste custode.) [Chetham Society's Publications, Farnden Canon Book, p. 292.]

Licence, for 8 marks paid in the hanaper by Henry Maupas, clerk, Richard Fletton, clerk, and Thomas Woodward of Ramsey, for the alienation in mortmain by them of six messuages, three tofts, ten acres of land and a rood of meadow in Ramsey, Heightmondegrave and Bury, not held in chief, to the abbot and convent of Ramsey for the maintenance and repair of a chapel of St. Mary to be newly built (de novo construendo) within the abbey and to maintain other works of piety in the chapel and monastery, as they said Henry, Richard and Thomas shall order. (Teste custode.)

John Welyngton, prior of Lanthony Prima in Wales, staying in England, has letters nominating Adam Elmeley and Hugh de Ewyas his attorneys in Ireland for two years.

John Prophete, dean of Hereford, received the attorneys by writ.

Licence, for 22 marks paid in the hanaper by the abbot and convent of Welbek, for the alienation in mortmain by John de Barleburgh and Agnes, his wife, of eight messuages, 25 bovates of land and 28s. of rent issuing from lands and tenements of Henry Dawesson, John Pak, John Bertrem and John Cook, and the service of the said Henry, John, John and John, in Dukemanton, co. Derby, and by John Tyrswell of two messuages, and by