Presentation of John Snell, chaplain, to a mediety of the church of Okesteed Skylling in the diocese of Salisbury, void by the resignation of Richard Goodfelawe, and in the king's gift by reason of the alien priory of Montacuite being in his hand on account of the war with France.

Presentation to R. bishop of Chichester, for admission to the hospital of St. Bartholomew, Rye, of John Sharp, chaplain, nominated to the king by the mayor and commonalty of Rye, it being in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien abbey of Fécamp being in his hand on account of the war with France. (Teste castode.)

MEMBRANE 4.

Grant, for life, to the king's esquire Robert Teye, because retained for life, of 40 marks a year at the Exchequer.

Ratification of the estate of William Cachepoll as parson of Monselowe in the diocese of Hereford.

Presentation of John Wythynpton, chaplain, to the church of Sutton by Shrewsbury in the diocese of Hereford.

Grant to the king's clerk John de Medilton of the prebend of Taxagard in the cathedral church of Dublin.

Mandates in pursuance to R. archbishop of Dublin, and the dean and chapter.

Pardon, at the supplication of the bishop of Worcester and with the assent of the Council, to John Bremor, clerk, and John Whitynge, his proctor, of their breach of the statute of provisors, through ignorance, the first in obtaining a provision from the Pope to the church of Chesterton in the diocese of Lincoln, when it was void by the death at the Roman court of Robert Belage, the last rector, and the second in accepting the same as the said John's proctor; and licence, with the like assent, for the said John Bremor to hold the same without let or hindrance.

Pardon to the king's kinsman Master Henry de Beauford of his breach of the statute of provisors in obtaining from the Pope a provision to the deanery of Wells, void by the death of Master Thomas de Sudbury, and in suing for the same, and of all penalty and forfeiture therefor, and licence for him to obtain execution of the provision without let or hindrance of the king's ministers, notwithstanding the said statute.

Notification that the king has caused to be delivered from the coffers of his chamber to his treasurer, Roger Walden, 40,000 crowns of gold, French money, of the value of 10,000 marks, to be applied to certain purposes, and that the king wills that that sum be levied by Richard, bishop of Salisbury, and William Lescrope out of the issues, profits and revenues of the castles, manors, lands, &c. of the late queen Anne, whereof the custody was granted to Thomas, archbishop of York, and Edward, earl of Rutland, and be returned to the said chamber.

Mandate in pursuance to the said archbishop and earl to permit the said bishop and William Lescrope to levy the sum accordingly.

Grant, for their lives in survivorship or until further order, to William Courcy, knight, and Margaret, his wife, for their good service to the king and Isabel, queen of England, of 100l. a year at the Exchequer.
