1396.

Sept. 11. Westminster.

Grant, in fee, to the king's clerks Ralph Repynton and William Asshirst of a messuage called 'a brewhouse,' with two shops and two sollars built over it, in the parish of St. Andrew, Raynard-eastell, London, and a house called 'a bakhouse' in Basyng-lane, London, bequeathed, without licence, by John Poxton, citizen and fishmonger of London, and another house with three shops and two sollars in the same parish, bequeathed by Walter Bole, citizen of London, to the parson and four good men of the said parish for the performance of divine service and supporting other charges in the church, the premises being of the yearly value of 20l. and forfeited because bequeathed to persons not capable [of taking the same]; provided that they account for any surplus value.

By K.

Presentation of John Barwell, parson of the parish church of Fyfid by Andevere in the diocese of Winchester, to the church of Stourton in the diocese of Salisbury, on an exchange with William Dalton.

Pardon and release, with the assent of the Council and for 3,000 marks paid at the Receipt of the Exchequer by Henry Soner and Richard Hatton, the executors both of the will of John Slegh, chief butler of the king, and of the will of Margaret, late the wife of the said John, now also deceased, of all debts, accounts, farms, arrears of farms, &c. due from him or her, and further, remission and release to the same of all impeachments, concealments, extortions, &c. by the said John and Margaret, for which the executors could be molested.

By p.s.

Grant, as a gift from the king, to Thomas Mowe, Nicholas Monketon and Richard Polton, yeomen of the chamber, of the 25l. which the king is informed is due from the abbess and convent of Romsey, co. Southampton, to the king for the last voidance of the abbey.

Grant, for life, to Griffin Pereveal, yeoman of the livery of the Crown, of such daily wages at the Exchequer as the king has granted to others of that livery.

By p.s.

1397.

Jan. 2. Westminster.

Ratification of the estate of John Lange, chaplain, as parson of Dunchidyok in the diocese of Exeter.

Grant, for life, to Adam Colton, one of the yeomen of the chamber, of 3d. a day out of the issues of the city of London, instead of the wages of 3d. a day which he has received within the household.

By p.s.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because Henry IV granted to him 341. 11s. 3d. a year for life at the Exchequer, 21 November in his third year.

MEMBRANE 3.

1396.

Exemplification, at the request of the abbot and convent of St. Mary Graces by the Tower, of (1) letters patent dated at Westminster, 15 December in the fourteenth year, (Calendar, 1388-1392, p. 364), and (2) letters patent dated at Westminster, 8 August in the fifteenth year, [not found enrolled] being a grant in frank almain to the said abbot and monks of the hospital of St. Giles near and without the city of London, co. Middlesex, and of the advowson of the hospital, together with the church within it and the church of Feltham, appropriated to the hospital, and all its lands, tenements and other possessions and liberties, for supporting poor leprous men therein and a chaplain and a clerk for