1397.

Pardon to William Tadcastre, servant of Thomas Rascal, 'bokeler-maker,' for the death of William Foteman, killed in Flete-strete in the parish of St. Dunstan in the West, Farndon Without ward, London, on Monday the eve of St. Andrew in the nineteenth year. By p.s. [10813.]

Mandate to John Reche, escheator in Kent and Middlesex, to deliver the temporalities of the archbishopric of Canterbury to Thomas, archbishop elect, translated from York, whose fealty the king has received. [Fcedera.]

The like to the following, under the same date:—
Adam Bamme, mayor and escheator in London.
Peter de Bukton, knight, escheator in the county of York.
Roger Cavendissh, escheator in Suffolk.
John Brook, escheator in Surrey and Sussex.
Clement Spice, escheator in Essex and Herts.
The escheator in the counties of Oxford and Berks.
The escheator in Norfolk.

Writ de intendendo in pursuance to the tenants. By K.

1396.

Grant, for life, without rent, to the king's servant John Beaufitz of the lands and tenements in Coventry, late of John Cristelton, tenant in chief, of the yearly value of 6 marks, 6s. 8d. forfeited to the king by his death without heir. By p.s.

1397.

Grant, during pleasure, without rent, to Robert, late bishop of Chichester, archbishop postulate of York, of the temporalities of that archbishopric from 18 January. [Fcedera.] By p.s.

Roger de Mortuo Mari, earl of March, staying in Ireland on the king's service, has letters nominating Thomas, archbishop of Canterbury, and Richard, earl of Arundel, his attorneys for one year.

Thomas, archbishop of Canterbury, late chancellor, and Nicholas Bubbewyth, king's clerk, received the attorneys before the departure of the person appointing, until his return.

He has other letters nominating Robert, bishop of London, and Henry, earl of Northumberland.

He has others nominating John, bishop of St. Davids, and Thomas, earl of Kent.

He has others nominating John de Cobbeham, knight, and Hugh de Burnell, knight. The said archbishop received the attorneys as above.

Presentation of Thomas Godfrey, parson of Rokesley in the diocese of Rochester, to the church of Aber in the diocese of Bangor, on an exchange with William Hunden.

The like mutatis mutandis of William Hunden to the church of Rokesley, in the king's gift by reason of his wardship of the land and heir of Richard de Ponynges, knight, tenant in chief.

Pardon to William de Illegate of York, mercer, for the death of Richard de Ulleston, of York, mercer, killed on Monday before Michaelmas in the nineteenth year.

Whereas the king is informed that on account of the strife between certain persons of the priory and order of Sempyngham and William Beverley, master of that order, divine services and other works of piety in the priory are diminished and withdrawn and its possessions dissipated, the priory being of the patronage of Henry, son and heir of John de Bello Monte, knight, tenant in chief, a minor in the king's wardship, the