MEMBRANE 12—cont.

1397.

For 1 mark paid in the hanaper.

Feb. 14. Westminster. Grant, for their lives, to the king's knight William Lyle the younger and Amice Filz Elys of 30l. [a year] from the fee farm of the town of Oxford, as held by Baldwin Berford, knight. By p.s. [10893.]

Feb. 12. Westminster. Grant to the king's esquire John Fekenhem, one of the ushers of the chamber, of the 100s. a year payable to the king during the war with France by the prior of the priory of Lewes, lately alien; notwithstanding any other grant heretofore made by the king to the said John. By p.s.

Presentation of William Smyth alias Wyntryngham to the church of Yelvertoft in the diocese of Lincoln.

MEMBRANE 11.

Feb. 22. Westminster. Writ of aid for Simon atte Ford and Roger de Bridport, appointed to buy and provide at the king's expense canvas for cordage (cordis) for the king's ships, viz. cables, 'hawsoers, uppetyes, trasseropes,' &c., and to procure workmen for the manufacture of the same, and carriage, with power to arrest contrariants. By bill of treasurer.

Feb. 23. Westminster. Ratification of the estate of John Bradeney as parson of Rayton in the diocese of Coventry and Lichfield.

Feb. 23. Westminster. Pardon to Thomas, son of Richard Clerk, of Boston, for killing his brother John there on Monday before the Nativity of St. Mary in the eighteenth year or Tuesday after St. James the Apostle in the nineteenth. By p.s.

Feb. 23. Westminster. Grant, for life, to the king's servant William Serle of a messuage with six shops in Martlane in the parish of Stanyghirche, London, forfeited by the outlawry of William Nicholas, goldsmith, of London, for killing Robert Horner; but if the premises exceed the yearly value of 6 marks he is to account for the surplus. By p.s.

Feb. 26. Westminster. Pardon, at the supplication of Edmund, duke of York, to William Roubein, who, when Thomas Kytle and Richard Bernard the elder on Tuesday night after Michaelmas in the seventeenth year had brought about four sacks of wool on horses to the sea, which the said Thomas and one Laurence Hildere had sold previously to a foreigner with Robert Smyth of Offyngham, Henry Klot, William Kytle, John Mechelegrave, John Clerk of Worthing, William Otham and Adam Gravet, was indicted for that night in the highway at Worthing, near the sea, opposite the port (citra mare ex opposta partium) of Kyngeston, lying in hiding, seizing them with their horses and wool, and keeping them until they made a fine with them of 8 marks and promised to keep their counsel. By K.

The like to the said Robert, William Otham and Adam. By K.

Feb. 27. Westminster. Ratification of the estate of Robert Lywer as parson of Teyngtondrowe in the diocese of Exeter.