been confirmed by the apostolic see &c. [Calendar of Papal Letters, 1362-1404, p. 517]; provided that the prior and convent at all voidances certify the Crown of the death or cession of the abbots, pray licence to elect a successor, obtain the royal assent and restitution of temporalities, &c.; and pardon to the said abbot and convent of any trespass, contempt, misprision and forfeiture incurred by suing for the premises at the apostolic see or in paying to the papal collector the 20 marks prescribed by the said indult.

By K. for 40s. paid in the hanaper.

Legitimation, with the assent of Parliament, of the children of the king’s uncle John, duke of Lancaster, viz. John [Beauford], knight, Henry [Beauford], clerk, Thomas [Beauford], ‘donsel,’ and Joan Beauford, ‘damsel.’ [Pecula.]

By K. in Parl.

Pardon, for 20 marks paid to the king by John Syward the younger and Joan, his wife, of divers trespasses in respect of the acquisition of the manor of Wynterborn Waste, co. Dorset, and the advowson thereof and other lands in Wynterborn Waste, Bokhampton and Swanwich in that county, which Nicholas Tamworth, knight, and Joan, his wife, acquired in fee tail from John de Mitriaico, prior of St. Michael de Vasto, Boulogne-sur-Mer, France, together with the homages and services of all the tenants, free and bond, held of the late king in chief, with remainder to the heirs and assigns of Nicholas. Simon, abbot of Cluny, the said prior’s superior, confirmed and the late king 4 March, 43 Edward III, ratified the estate of the said Nicholas and Joan therein. Nicholas thereupon enfeoffed Robert, vicar of Estgarston, John de Estbury and Roger Lansaunt of the same, and the feoffees demised the same to Roger Syward for life, but both the feoffees and the said Roger successively entered on the premises without licence of the king. Afterwards the said Joan and Gilbert Talbot, who had married her, granted the premises and all their interest for the life of the said Joan to the said Roger Syward, on whose death John Syward, his son and heir, entered thereon without inquisition taken or due livery, and enfeoffed William Canyngeton, parson of Wynterborn Honyngton, and Robert Penne, parson of Wynterborn Clencheton, of the premises, and these last re-enfeoffed the said John Syward the younger and Joan, his wife, and the heirs of their bodies, all parties entering on the premises without licence; and further, licence for the said John to grant the premises to whom he will, for his life.

Pardon to John de Lyndup of Derley for the death of William, son of John de Selveyn, killed on Thursday after the Conversion of St. Paul in the sixteenth year.

MEMBRANE 5.

Grant, during the minority of the heir, to John Leukenor, yeoman of the chamber, of the office of forester of the forest of Duarth in the Welsh March, in the king’s hand by reason of the minority of the heir of lord de Talbot, tenant in chief.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled.

Grant to the king’s brother John Holand, earl of Huntingdon, keeper (custodi) of the castle and town of Carlisle, and of the Westmarche towards Scotland, of all the meadows, pastures and fisheries belonging to the castle, without rendering aught therefor.
