1397.

Grant to the king's nephew Thomas, duke of Surrey, of all the stock of stallions, mares and foals in the manors and lordships in the counties of Warwick and Worcester, late of Thomas, earl of Warwick, which he has by the king's grant, the same being forfeited by the judgement in Parliament against the said earl.

By p.s.

Sept. 28. Westminster.

Grant, in tail male, to the king's knight John Bussy of the manors of Cavendissyh, Wrotting and Stansfeld, co. Suffolk, together with the knights' fees, advowsons and other liberties and franchises appurtenant thereto, come to the king's hands by the forfeiture of Thomas Mortynere, knight; in recompense for the yearly fee which he receives at the Exchequer by letters patent now surrendered.

Vanced because otherwise this year.

Licence, for 20s., paid to the king by Humphrey de Stafford, knight, and Elizabeth, his wife, for John Bryt and Robert Grey to grant the manor of Perton, co. Stafford, held in chief, to the said Humphrey and Elizabeth for their lives, with remainder to Humphrey de Stafford 'le Fitz,' knight, and Elizabeth, his wife, in tail, with final remainder to the right heirs of Humphrey 'le Fitz.'

Grant, during pleasure, to the king's esquire John Draper of the office of controller of the king's works at the palace of Westminster, the Tower of London, the castle of Berkhamstede, the manors of Kenyngton, Eltham, Claryngdon, Shene, Sutton, Byflete, Childermelangley and Feckenham, the lodge of Hathebergh in the New Forest, the lodges within the parks of Claryngdon, Eltham, Childermelangley and Feckenham, the mews for falcons by Charrygeronch, the castle of Bristol and the chapel of the college of Wyndesore castle, and the drawbridge with house called 'Wyndynghous' built upon the stone bridge of Rocheestre, and controller of the gardens, stanks, mills and fences of those parks and all others belonging to the premises.

By bill of treasurer.

Grant, for life, without rent, to the king's servant William Sandham of a yearly quit-rent of 16 marks issuing from two tenements, one in the parish of St. Dunstan by the Tower of London, the other in the parish of St. George by Esthepe, forfeited to the king because one John Smelt, citizen and fishmonger of London, left it, without licence, in his will for the maintenance of two chaplains celebrating divine service in the church of St. Mary Montenant, London; together with all moneys arising therefrom and due to the king from the time of the statute of Winchester against the devising of lands and tenements in mortmain.

By p.s. [11571.]

Grant to Master Hugh Herland, the king's chief carpenter, of all the croppings and coppices (croppas et copicia) from the trees and timber bought and provided for the Hall within the palace of Westminster and other the king's works, which lie cut and remaining over in a wood near Kyngeston upon Thames.

By p.s. [11579.]

Presentation of Ralph Repynton to the chapel of St. Leonard near Gresford in the diocese of St. Asaph.

Grant to the bailiffs and good men of Scard borough of pavage for three years.

Licence for the servants and household (familiaribus) of Thomas, archbishop of Canterbury, to the number of twenty persons, chosen by him, to go beyond seas with their horses and baggage in the company of the archbishop, there remain and return, and pass to and fro at will in the transaction of his business; and protection and safe-conduct for them so long as they remain in his service.

By p.s. [11600.]