Grant, for life, to the king's servant Adam atte Wode of the manor of Little Caumfelde, co. Essex, to the yearly value of 10l. notwithstanding the 100s. a year which he receives at the Exchequer, provided that he account for any surplus.

_Vacated because nothing was done herein._

By p.s. [11500.]

Licence, for 6s. 8d. paid in the hanaper by Edmund Warham, archdeacon of Kermerdun in the cathedral church of St. Davids, for the alienation in mortmain by John Hiot, prebendary of Carvy and Llannerpeter therein, of a parcel of land, 15 feet wide, part of the prebendal manse, extending from the king's high way going towards St. Patrick's gate as far as the water running under the wall of the bishop's palace, and adjacent to the said manse, to the said archdeacon and his successors, for the enlargement of the same and for enclosing it for its greater security.

Grant, in tail male, to the king's knight John Bussy of the manor of Kirtlyng, co. Cambridget, with the knights' fees, advowsons, and other franchises and liberties thereto belonging, late of Thomas, earl of Warwick, forfeited by reason of the judgement in Parliament against him. By K.

Grant, during pleasure, to Robert, bishop of London, of the office of chancellor of Ireland, to execute in person or by deputy, with the usual fee.

_Patronage to_ [11606.]

Presentation of John Crosse, chaplain, to the church of Holt in the diocese of Worcester.

Pardon to Hugh Parker, sometime of Estwordelham, lately dwelling at Halybourne, for the death of Thomas Dykere of Redyng, killed in the king's highway leading from Aulton to Estwordelham on Saturday the feast of St. Laurence in the eleventh year.

Grant, in fee simple, to Baldwin Haryngton and Richard Fourneys of all the lands and tenements in Burlee by Staunford in the counties of Northampton and Lincoln, whereof William, late archbishop of Canterbury, and others were enfeoffed to the use of Thomas Darmidell, archbishop of Canterbury, and which by the forfeiture of the said Thomas, by virtue of the judgement in Parliament against him, are come into the king's hands. By p.s.

Presentation of Robert Colynson of Russhehale, chaplain, to the chantry of St. John the Evangelist within the chapel of Drayton Basset in the diocese of Coventry and Lichfield.

Presentation of Walter Bryd, chaplain, to the vicarage of Llantefey in the diocese of St. Davids, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the bishopric being in his hand through the voidance of the see.

Ratification of the estate of John Blakwoll as prebendary of a prebend in the chapel of St. Mary and the Holy Angels, York. By p.s.

Licence for the king's liege John Bryd and Reginald de Herleym, of Paris, goldsmith, to bring into England certain gold jewels garnished with pearls (perulis et margaritis), to the value of 1,000 marks, and expose them for sale, paying to the king the customs and other dues for those they sell in England, and licence to take the rest where they please. By p.s. [11606.]