1397. Oct. 2. Westminster. Grant, for life, to the king's servant Thomas Brigg, clerk, of two messuages and three bovates of land in Burton Anneys, co. York, late of Roger Somervyll, knight, and forfeited because he alienated them in mortmain without licence to a chantry of St. Mary there; provided that he account to the king for any surplus beyond 40s. a year. By p.s.

MEMBRANE 1.

Grant to Robert, archbishop of York, of all debts owing to Alexander Nevill, formerly archbishop of York, and concealed from the king within the counties of York and Hexham, and also of all debts owing to Thomas Arundell, late archbishop, forfeited in the county of York. By p.s.

Licence for the sub prior and convent of Christchurch, Twybnham, which is of the patronage of William, late earl of Salisbury, to elect a prior in the room of John Wodenham, deceased, the possessions of the said earl being in the king's hand. By p.s.

Grant to the king's servants John Wilton, Thomas Thorpe, Richard Misley and John Cliderhowe, of the goods and chattels to the value of 60l. late of Adam Barbour of Colcestre, Roger Terry of Horsham, co. Sussex, and Robert Belhom of Cantebrigg, forfeited by their outlawry in the Hustling of London in a plea of debt; provided that they account for any surplus. By p.s.

Grant to William Berner, messenger of the counting-house of the household, and John Wodecok, groom of the counting-house, of the fine of 10l. incurred by the king's esquire John Wykes, marshal of the Bench and warden of the prisoners of the Marshalsea, by the escape from his custody of John Foston, chaplain, and John Austyn, felons. By p.s.

Sept. 28. Westminster. Grant, for life, to Thomas le Desponser, earl of Gloucester, of the castle of St. Briavel, with the forest of Dene, at the yearly rent of 80l. from the day of the judgement in Parliament against Thomas, late duke of Gloucester, as Guy de Brian, knight, deceased, who held the premises by the late king's grant, rendered for the same. By p.s.

Ratification of the estate of Robert Langton as vicar of Ware. By p.s.

The like for the following:—

Thomas Aston, as vicar of Westbourn in the diocese of Chichester.

John ap Rys, as archdeacon of Anglesey in the cathedral church of Bangor with the churches of Amylugh and Liedewygan annexed to the archdeaconry. By p.s.

John Benne, as parson of Southwode in the diocese of Norwich.

Henry Symkyn, as parson of the parish church of Wetheresfeld in the diocese of London. By p.s.

John Daubeneay, as parson of Wydehale in the diocese of London.

Richard Liversegge, as vicar of Bristall by Mirfeld in the diocese of York.

John Malweyn, as parson of Hulprynngton in the diocese of Salisbury.