together with all liberties, fees and franchises belonging thereto, and the issues received from the day it came into the king’s hands, saving only to the king advowsons of churches and of church benefices pertaining to the manor.

Presentation of John Wynde, chaplain, to the vicarage of Little Okesborne, in the immediate jurisdiction of Thomas de Monte Acuto, dean of St. Mary’s, Salisbury, void by the resignation of Thomas Joop.

Grant to the clerk of the larder, Robert Eland, of the free chapel of Lesmoly in the diocese of Down in Ireland.

Thomas, archbishop of Dublin, staying in England, has letters nominating John Boltham and Robert Wyght, esquires, his attorneys in Ireland for one year.

The chancellor received the attorneys until the return into Ireland of the said Thomas.

He also has the like, nominating Thomas Bache and John Asserby, clerks.

Presentation of John Orum to the church of Toynton in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king’s gift by reason of the alien priory of Derehurst being in his hand on account of the war with France.

Grant, by the advice of the Council and for a fine of 200l. to be paid by the prior and convent of Peterborough abbey, to them that they may have all the temporalities belonging to their abbey, together with the issues since the death of Nicholas Elnestowe, the late abbot, during the voidance for a quarter of a year or less, and if the voidance last longer they shall make such fine as shall be agreed upon by the Council.

Presentation of John Monk, chaplain, to the vicarage of Little Okesborne in the diocese of Salisbury and immediate jurisdiction of Thomas de Monte Acuto, dean of Salisbury.

Revocation of protection for one year lately granted to John Dunholt of the county of Huntingdon, as staying on the king’s service in the company of Thomas, earl marshal and of Nottingham, captain of Calais, because he tarries in that county on his own affairs, as the sheriff has certified.

Pardon to John Longe, son of Henry Longe, ‘cuter,’ for all felonies; extortions and trespasses, except treason, murder and rape.

Grant to John Cheyne, chaplain, of the wardenship of the free chapel of St. Thomas, Marlebergh.

Pardon to Richard Lescrope, knight, for his adherence to Thomas, duke of Gloucester, when in the tenth year that duke attaching to himself, Richard, earl of Arundel, and Thomas, earl of Warwick, usurped the royal power, issued a commission for the governance of the realm, rise in insurrection at Haryngey &c., the present Parliament having declared those proceedings high treason. [Fidera.] By K.
