Membrane 11—cont.

Grant, for their lives in survivorship, to Peter Hernodesworth, yeoman of the avenary, and Lil. Vichan ap Lil. Goghz, one of the king's esquires, of the office of taglers of the commotes of Mevenyth and Perveth, co. Cardigan; at the supplication of the first-named, to whom the same was granted by letters patent dated 8 November in the fourteenth year, now surrendered. [Calendar, 1388-1392, p. 821.] By p.s. [11237.]

Release and discharge, with the full assent of the Council after mature deliberation, to the king's uncle John, duke of Lancaster, and his son Henry duke of Hereford, tenants of the lands and tenements late of Thomas, earl of Lancaster, and their heirs, of all the king's right, forfeiture, action, suit, demand, title and claim which he could have in any castles, honours, lordships, manors, hundreds &c., late of the said earl, by reason of the earl's treasons, seditions, insurrections, forfeiture &c., in the time of Edward II; and further confirmation to the said duke and their heirs of their estate and possession in the premises.

By p.s. [11048.]

Grant, for life, for good service to the late king in the Wardrobe as well as to the king, to John Forster of 4d. a day at the Exchequer. By p.s. Vouch'd by surrender and cancelled, because Henry IV on 29 February in his ninth year granted that sum to him out of the fee farm of the city of Canterbury.

Licence for 20 marks paid in the hanaper of Ralph de Nevyll, earl of Westmorland, for him to enfeoff Richard de Cliderhowe, John Darell and John Wyttton of his manor of Chaveryng, co. Essex, held in chief, and for the foeces, after sei-in had, to grant it to the said earl and Joan, his wife, and the heirs of the earl.

Ratification of the estate of Thomas Rydelyngton as parson of Milane in the diocese of Norwich.

Sale, for 120l. paid by William Losecope, earl of Wiltshire, to him of six oxen, a cart with furniture and an iron-bound 'trokell,' in Paynecastell; 26 oxen, 537 muttons, 4 draught cattle, 86 quarters of wheat, 92 quarters of fine wheat (siliginis), 52 quarters of oats, 5 waggon-loads of hay, a parcel of straw, three iron-bound waggons, 2 bodies of waggons, worn, 2 harrows with iron teeth, 2 harrows with wooden teeth, 2 flails, 3 ploughs with furniture, a measure called a 'trug,' a saw, a mattock, an axe, a 'billehoke,' 2 horse shears (cras equinas), a 'hamme r,' 2 iron forks and an old (debilem) chest, in the manor of la Royl; and 251 sheep, and 24 quarters of wheat, 20 quarters of fine wheat, 40 quarters of oats, a waggon not iron-bound, a harrow with iron teeth, 2 ploughs with furniture, a wooden harrow, a flail, an old chest and 2 waggon-loads of hay, in Kybala grange, late of Thomas, earl of Warwick, come to the king's hands by the said earl's forfeiture and in the keeping of Robert Hilton, esquire, constable of the said castle. By bill of treasurer.

Grant, during good behaviour, to Richard Millington of the principality of Chester, of the office of bailiff of the Welsh gate (porte Wallensis) in Shrewsbury, provided that he is capable of occupying it. * By p.s.

Grant to Alice, late the wife of Thomas de Holand, earl of Kent, of the manors, fee farms and other lands in divers counties of England assigned to her in dower of the said earl's possessions, together with the knights' fees, advowsons and other appurtenances, and also all the issues and profits thereof from the date of his death.

By p.s.