1398.

Membrane 10—cont.

Virgate and four acres of land in Bromcote; by Walter de Hestynge and Athawys, his wife, to Osanna, then prioress, in the presence of Roger, bishop of Chester, of the site of Aldabury &c., as far as the middle of the trench (radum) on the side of Mangestre and some part of the wood on the south-east of Aldabury to the rivulet (torrentium) which comes from Herdreeshull, and all the land of Calvercroft and Bircheshle, viz. that lying between the two streets of Mere-streit and Bircheleia-streit; by Robert Marmium, formerly lord of Nether Wythacre, to Aubrey, then abbess, of a virgate of land in Nether Wythacre; by Hugh Burdet of land called 'CopenhuH'; by John de Bracebrugge of the mills of Kinesbury with Milnecroft and Whetholm, an acre of meadow at Bradford &c.; the mill of Hurle with suit &c.; by William le Frances of Tamworth of all his land of Glasscote, which Hugh, son of William, had given to him; by William de Olene of a shop in Coventry: by Roger de Sumervill of a virgate of land in Diwike; by Thomas de Overtona of all his land in Sutton; by Thomas, earl of Warwick, confirming the foregoing; by Cecily de Limesi of a virgate of land in Pakinton: by Robert de Sumervile of a virgate of land in Pakinton; by William Dreucuc, son of Robert Dreu of Sepa, of certain lands and meadows in Little Sepeia; by Thomas de Kaville, knight, confirming to them all the gifts made to them by Robert Dreu and William, his son; by Geoffrey del lec of two virgates of land in Durnantegthorp; by Roger de Rideware, confirming the foregoing; by Margaret Banstre of a virgate of land in Appelbi; by Henry Mallore of three virgates of land in Osbernestrle; by Adam de Wellebore of [his bondmen] William de Bildeston and Henry, his son, and all their issue, and two virgates and three acres of land in Bildeston and the homage and service of Thomas Sarazyn in exchange for certain lands in Wellebore; by William de Appelby of all his land and rents &c. in Smarkston: by Robert Motun, knight, of all his land, rents &c. there, in addition to those given by the said William de Appelby; by Emma, daughter of William Bonsire, of a moiety of a messuage in the parish of St. Peter, Leire: by Hugh de Moreton of 10s. of rent in Algartorp; and by Joan de Salceta of a house (manoe) in Tormerton with croft adjacent and moiety of a virgate of land and a fourth part of a virgate of land there. [Of Monasticon, Vol. II, p. 362, and Dugdale, Warwickshire, pp. 784, 785.]

For 40s. paid in the hanaper.

Feb. 15.

Westminster.

Grant, for life, to Guy Mone, bishop of St. Davids, of 100 marks a year at the Exchequer, as from 24 June last, when that sum was granted to him by letters patent surrendered into Chancery 28 September, when by other letters patent the king granted to him the manors of High Rothynge, Little Canfeld and Ouysham, co. Essex, and other possessions of Richard, late earl of Arundel, which had been previously granted to the king's brother the duke of Exeter.

By p.s.

Jan. 7.

Coventry

Presentation of John Clerc, parson of Barton in the diocese of Lincoln, to the church of Salthous in the diocese of Norwich, on an exchange with Robert Arch[er].

By p.s. [11888.]

Feb. 2.

Shrewsbury

Presentation of Thomas Chaundos to the church of Stretton in le Clay in the diocese of York; directed to the guardian of the spirituality of the archbishopric sede vacante.

By p.s.