1398.
May 1. Westminster.
Revocation of protection with clause columnus for one year granted to William Sharnesfeld alias Sarnesfeld, as staying on the king’s service in the company of the king’s esquire John Orwell, captain of Sandgate castle, because he tarryes in London on his own affairs, as is certified by the sheriffs.

Grant, in fee, to the king’s nephew Thomas, duke of Surrey, of the manor of Perye, co. Worcester, with all lands, tenements, rents and services in Hundyngtrope, 30s. of rent issuing from the mill of Foure, all lands, tenements, rents and services within Wyche and Wyttton, the reversion of the manor of Lytelyncarrow together with a rent of 8l. issuing from the same manor, which manor Alice Tanglegh holds for life at that yearly rent, 40s. of rent issuing from the manor of Perye, together with the reversion of the rent held for life by her by grant of Thomas Beauchamp, late earl of Warwick, the glebes and advowsons of Upton Warren and Wyttton, and the bullery of salt water within the town of Wyche, all which have been forfeited to the king by reason of the judgement in Parliament against the said earl of Warwick; for which the said duke is to render to the king the services due and accustomed, provided that the premises are not part of the shrievalty of Worcester.

By K.

May 1. Westminster.
Grant, for life, with the assent of the Council, to John Harpetyng, yeoman feuterer of the king, of a yearly rent of 12s. issuing from a messuage in Podynghoo given by John Herbard of Rottyngdon to the priory of Lewes and lands and tenements to the yearly value of 28s. in Ballesden, also given to the said priory by William Darnell and Alice, his wife, of the parish of Sothenover, both being given without the king’s licence and for that reason forfeited; provided that any surplus is accounted for.

By p.s.

October 15. Westminster.
Grant, for life, to Edward, duke of Rutland, after reciting that by agreement with him Robert Kendale had surrendered letters patent granting to the latter for life the close of Morton in Inglewode forest to the yearly value of 8l. [Calendar, 1391 1396, p. 228] and that by other letters patent the king granted for the term of nine years to Ralph, lord de Nevyle, now earl of Westmorland, the said close of Morton together with the closes of Hesket, Wollaykes and Nunelos, at the yearly rent of 45l. [Ibid, p. 376], and by other letters patent to the said duke, then earl of Rutland, the reversion of the said closes together with another close called ‘Blabarthwayt,’ at the same rent [Ibid, p. 376], and further that by inquisition taken by Sampson Hardynge, escheator in Cumberland, it was found that Morton close was of the yearly value of 24l. — of the reversion, at the end of the said Ralph’s term, of all the premises, he paying 7l. a year to the king and 8l. a year to the said Robert Kendale, according to his said agreement with the said Robert for the surrender aforesaid; and further, pardon and remission to him of all profits of Morton close received by him in excess of 8l. a year. By K. & c.

April 24. Westminster.
Appointment, for two years, of Roger de Mortuo Mari, earl of March and Ulster, as the king’s lieutenant in Ireland.

By K. & C.

January 2. Coventry.
Grant, for life, to the king’s esquire John Luffwyk of 40l. a year from the issues of the hanaper of Chancery.

By p.s.

Licence, for 4 marks paid in the hanaper, for the alienation in mortmain by Roger Leueson of 12 acres of land in Wednesfeld, not held in chief, to Thomas Brounyng, chaplain of a chantry in the chapel of Willenhale, and his successors, in increase of their maintenance.