Presentation of Nicholas Stoke to the church of Stoke in Clymnesslond in the diocese of Exeter, void by the resignation of Walter Westney.

Protection with clause columnus for one year for Roger de Mortuo Mari, earl of March, staying in Ireland on the king’s service. By bill of p.s.

Grant, for a fine of 100l. paid to the king’s use by the abbot and convent of Gloucester and for the keeping by them and their successors of an obit every year for the soul of the king after his decease and the soul of the late queen Anne, to them of lands and tenements in Broecworth, co. Gloucester, as hereinafter described, forfeited by them because obtained by collusion under the following circumstances:—Walter, abbot of St. Peter’s, Gloucester, lately by writ of formedon in the Common Bench sued Hugh Drewre, parson of Coburley, John Aston, warden of the chantry of Beuval, and Robert Mody of Eldresfeld, for six messuages, two carucates of land, 14 acres of meadow, 3 acres of wood and 9s. 1d. of rent, and Richard Wotton and Elizabeth, his wife, for two messuages, 44 acres of land and 1 acre of meadow, and John Russell and Emma, his wife, for a messuage and 24 acres of land, and William Gabbe and Isabel, his wife, for a messuage and 12 acres of land, and Roger Bouer and Elizabeth, his wife, for two messuages and 32 acres of land, and John Bouer and Cristina, his wife, for a messuage and 22 acres of land, and recovered all the premises against the said tenants, but because the abbot’s title rested wholly upon a gift which John, his predecessor, had made of the premises to Walter Gloucestre, knight, and Hawise, his wife, and the heirs of the body of Walter, as shown by indenture produced to the Council, the latter adjudging it to have been a gift in fee simple and not in fee tail, found collusion as above, and directed that the premises should be taken into the king’s hand.

Grant to Adam Naas of the prebend of Fithard in the cathedral church of Ferns in Ireland. Mandates in pursuance to the bishop of Ferns and the dean and chapter.

Grant to the abbess and convent of Denmuce, and their successors, of two tunns of Gascon wine yearly from the king’s prise of vines in the port of Lynne.
