MEMBRANE 4.

1398.
May 10.
Westminster.

Licence for William Heron and Elizabeth, his wife, to enfeof Robert Pobelowe and the rest. [As above (Membrane 7), omitting the advowson of Manningford Bryanne.]

Vacated because otherwise in this year.

June 11.
Westminster.

Special protection until Michaelmas for Adam Jakelyng, appointed to dispatch divers arduous and urgent business of the king in different parts of England, who fears whilst engaged thereon molestation from certain rivals; to include his men, lands, things, rents and all his possessions.

The like under the same date for William Poucher of Arundell.

May 20.
Westminster.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Master William de Waltham, Robert de Raghenhill, William Dionys and John Popitton, clerks, and Albin de Enderby, of a messuage and shop in the lane of St. Martin-le-Grand, in the parish of St. Anne, Aldrichesgate, London, held of the king in burgage, and of the yearly value of £3. 4d. as found by inquisition before Richard Whityngton, mayor and escheator, to the abbot and convent of Croyland, in full satisfaction of the licence granted to them by the late king to acquire lands, tenements and rents to the value of 20l. a year.

June 20.
Westminster.

Grant to Edward de Frogmore and Hugh Brewer of Farnam, of pontage and pavage for two years for repair of the bridge and causeway of that town.

MEMBRANE 3.

May 25.
Westminster.

Commission to Thomas Archer of Somerset, Master William Lambroke, clerk of the Council, John Colstone and John Bastaple, to enquire into the truth of the allegations in the petition (French) herein recited, of William Geiane and William Creiche, burgesses of Bristol, exhibited to the king and council, being a series of articles and complaints against John Stapilton, butler for the king in Bristol.

By C.

June 5.
Westminster.

Licence, for 20 marks paid in the hamaper by Roger Bursted, parson of St. George the Martyr's by Estheche, London, and the wardens and parishioners of that church, for William Neel and Alice, his wife, late the wife of John Walworth, citizen and vintner of London, Hugh Short, William Shirwode and John Askewyth, citizens of London, to grant in mortmain to the said Roger, churchwardens and parishioners 6½ marks of yearly rent, viz. 40s. from a tenement with a lane (rencella) built under it in the parish of St. Mary atte Hall by Billyngesgate, London, between the tenement of Geoffrey Aleyne on the west and that formerly Robert South's, tailor, on the east, extending from the king's highway called Thamysstrete on the north to the tenement formerly William Walworth's, knight, on the south, and 26s. 8d. from a tenement in the same parish between the cemetery of that church on the north and a tenement lately Roger Shipbrok's and Margaret, his wife's, on the south and abutting upon St. Botoloph's lane on the east, 20s. from a third tenement in the said parish of St. Mary atte Hall in the street going from St. Margaret Patyns towards Billyngesgate, viz. between the tenement formerly Robert le Sporier's on the north and that formerly Simon de Moordon's on the south and west and the king's highway on the east, which the said Alice, Hugh, William Shirwode and John had by feoffment of William North and John Clynton, clerks, and which are held of the king in free burgage; in aid of the maintenance of a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the said church of St. George for the souls of Robert Pykeman the elder, citizen, and fishmonger of London, John Walworth and all to whom he was bound, as they the said William Neel and the rest shall order, with covenant for distress if the rent be in arrear.