22 RICHARD II.—PART I.

MEMBRANE 37.

1398.
July 26. Westminster. Presentation to R. bishop of Salisbury, of Adam Bristowe, chaplain, for admission to a mediety of the church of Okford Shellyng, in the king's gift by reason of the alien priory of Mountagu being in his hand on account of the war with France.

July 28. Westminster. Presentation to H. bishop of Norwich, of Walter Cove, vicar of Clare in that diocese, for admission to the church of Tychewell in the same diocese, on an exchange with William Reed.

Aug. 10. Westminster. Protection with clause columna for one year for Richard Canes, going to Ireland on the king's service in the company of the king's nephew Thomas, duke of Surrey, his lieutenant there. By bill of p.s.

Aug. 17. Westminster. Grant to the king's servants John Lankryge and John Okburn of the fine of 10l. incurred by the warden of the prison of the [Common] Bench for the escape from his custody of John Mynour alias Mynour Pronour. By p.s. [12294.]

Aug. 20. Westminster. Grant to the king's servants Thomas Swyft and John Walsham of 20 marks of the goods and chattels late of John Dawes of Bruggenorth, forfeited to the king because by writ of account he was outlawed in the county of Warwick in the close of Easter last at the suit of Roger Whatecroft of Birmingham. By p.s. [12295.]

Aug. 20. Westminster. Presentation of Reginald ap Jorwerth to the church of Llandyssul in the diocese of St. Asaph, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the bishopric being in his hand through the late voidance.

Aug. 6. Westminster. Licence, for 10l. paid in the hamper by the abbot and convent of Brunne, reciting (1) letters patent lately granting licence to Thomas, duke of Surrey, to acquire in fee from the abbot of Beke Hellewyn in Normandy the priory of Willesford, co. Lincoln, a cell of that abbey, demised in the Exchequer to farm at 20 marks yearly during the war with France, and to alienate the same to the abbot and convent of Brunne, without rendering ought therefor to the king or his heirs (p. 114), and (2) that the abbot and convent of Beke Hellewyn are more desirous to alienate the said priory to the abbot and convent of Brunne than to any secular person as more conformable with law, because the priory is endowed with tithes and other spiritual possessions—for the alienation thereof by the abbot and convent of Beke Hellewyn to the abbot and convent of Brunne, without rent to the king but paying 5 marks yearly to the said abbot of Beke, notwithstanding the statute of mortmain or any other. By p.s.
