1398.

Aug. 10. Westminster.

Writ of aid, during good behaviour, for William Dionys, appointed clerk of the works at the king's castles of Wallyngford, Vise, Ledes, Rokyngham, Nottingham, Hardclowe, Conenway and Odyham, at his manors of Wodestok, Esthamstede, Haveryng atte Boure, Henley on the Heth, Cosham, Bekkele, Merssheton Myse, Ithstilworth, Middleton, Clpeston, Weden Pynkeney, Westonturville, Hampstede Marchall and Langerashale, and the lodge o Beskedow, and at the lodges, gardens, stanks, mills and houses and park palings belonging to the premises and to others, committed at another time to his oversight.

By bill of treasurer.

Presentation of John Ikelyngton to the parish church of Tavestok in the diocese of Exeter.

By p.s.

Grant to John Repynton of the prebend of Ith Vyghn in the cathedral church of St Asaph, with a mediety of the church of Llanveir annexed to the prebend.

By p.s.

Mandates in pursuance to J. bishop of St. Asaph, and the dean and chapter.

Aug. 3. Westminster.

Grant to the king's clerk Ralph Repynton of the treasurership of St. Paul's cathedral, London.

By p.s.

Grant, in tail male, to the king's uncle Edmund, duke of York on his petition—reciting the late king's grant to him in tail male, of 1000 marks a year at the Exchequer, until provided with lands of that yearly value, and that he has been provided with lands of the yearly value of 500 marks; that subsequently the king granted to him 1000l. a year out of the Customs in divers ports in England and afterwards the castle of Rysyng and the manor of Haddenston Halle, co. Norfolk, forfeited by Thomas, duke of Gloucester, the manors of Milham and Beston by Milham, together with the hundreds of Laundiche and Southgrenewhowe and the reversion expectant upon the death of Isabel, countess of Suffolk, of the manor of Costesey, all in the same county, forfeited by Richard, earl of Arundel, the value whereof was to be deducted from the 1000l. yearly received 'at the Exchequer,' whereas it should have been 'from the Customs,' in consequence of which negligence and of a prior grant of the aforesaid hundreds to the king's uncle John, duke of Lancaster, the grants aforesaid to the duke of York are invalid and are now surrendered—of the premises viz. the said castle to the value of 66l. 18s. 4d. a year, the manor of Haddenston Halle to the value of 20l. a year, the manors of Milham and Beston to the value of 83l. 6s. 8d. a year, and the manor of Costesey, in reversion, to the value of 131l. 8s. 5d. a year, in part satisfaction of lands, tenements and rents to the yearly value of 500 marks, arrears of the aforesaid grant by the late king, the king's grant of 1000l. remaining in full force. [Cf. p. 400.]

By K. & C. and p.s.

Licence—in consideration of the pious purpose of Richard and John de Ravenser, deceased, and the king's licence to them of 4 December in the fourth year (Calendar, 1381-1385, p. 68), and for 40s. paid in the hanaper by Master William Waltham, canon of the cathedral church of Lincoln, and Robert Ragenhill, now seised of the tenements late of John Totyll of Lincoln by the said licence granted to the said Richard and John—for the said William and Robert, and John de Popleton to found in the said church a chantry of two chaplains to celebrate divine service for the souls of the said Richard and John de Ravenser and to support certain other works of piety according to their ordinance, and for the alienation in mortmain by the said William, Robert and John of the messuages, plot, garden and dovecote in the said licence named to the chaplains of the chantry.