MEMBRANE 15—cont.

1398.

Aug. 11. Westminster. Grant to the king’s brother Edward, duke of Albemarle, of the wardship (custodiam) of all the lands, tenements, lordships, castles, towns, liberties, franchises, rents, services, forests, chases, parks, woods and warrens late of Roger, earl of March, within the realm of England, together with the wardships (wardis) belonging thereto, during the minority of Richard, his son and heir, rendering the yearly value thereof to the queen consort, with power to remove all the late earl’s officers and ministers, and to appoint others, saving the right of each who holds office in fee or for life. By p.s. Vacated because otherwise this year.

The like to the king’s brother John, duke of Exeter, in respect of those within the bounds and metes of South Wales.

The like to William, earl of Wiltshire, in respect of those within North Wales.

Sept. 2. Westminster. Presentation of Simon Hoke to the prebend of Marlepas in the collegiate church of Hastynges in the diocese of Chichester. By p.s.

Sept. 5. Westminster. Presentation to the guardian of the spirituality of the bishopric of Bangor of William Yerburgh, chaplain of the chantry called ‘Cornowayles chauntreye’ in the parish church of Laghterton in the diocese of Lincoln, for admission to the church of Llanvaes in the diocese of Bangor, on an exchange of benefits with John Jugge.

Sept. 5. Westminster. Grant, during pleasure, to Hugh de Midylton of the livery of the Crown, receiving therefor 6d. a day from the issues of the county of York. By p.s.

Sept. 8. Westminster. Grant to the king’s clerks Robert Frye, Thomas Hoocleve, William Flete and John Ithe of 40l. of the goods and chattels late of Simon Dyer of Colcestre, John Warde of Colcestre, John Fourde, tailor, and John Bregthorn, dyer, forfeited by them because they were outlawed in a plea of debt at the suit of Michael Roos. By p.s. [12819.]

Oct. 18. Westminster. Pardon to William Page of Suffolk of his outlawry for not appearing before Robert de Chelton and the other justices of the [King’s] Bench to answer John, parson of Russhebrok, in a plea of trespass, he having surrendered to the Marshalsea prison, as is certified by Walter Clopton, chief justice.

MEMBRANE 14.