
Writ of aid for Roger Galyan, appointed by Thomas de Brounfilet, chief butler, his deputy in the port of Lynne. By bill of the chief butler.

Nov. 8. Westminster.

Grant, for life, with the assent of the Council, to the king's esquire Thomas Sy of the reversion, expectant upon the death of the king's esquire Nicholas Londe, of certain lands and tenements in Sevenhampton Denys, co. Somerset, which are of the yearly value of 20 marks, and which he holds by the king's grant.

By p.s.

MEMBRANE 3.

Oct. 3. Westminster.

Inspevimus and confirmation to Edmund de Mortuo Mari, his brother, of (1) a writing indented of Roger de Mortuo Mari, earl of March and Ulster, dated at Wiggemore, 1 October in the eighteenth year, whereby the said earl granted to the said Edmund, and his heirs tail, yearly rents of 100 marks from his manors of Marklee and Mawardyn, co. Hereford, 40 marks from his manor of Meshwodevale, co. Dorset, 40l. from those of Bisselee, Brymesfeld and Wynesteem, co. Gloucester, and 40 marks from the manor and lordship of Clifford, until with the king's licence the grantor should grant to him in fee tail lands and tenements in England, Wales or the Welsh March of equal yearly value, with covenants for distress if the said rents are a term in arrear; and (2) letters patent of the said Roger, dated at his castle of Trym in Ireland, 1 January in the nineteenth year, granting to the same in fee tail (a) the manor of Gussich, co. Dorset, reciting the charter thereof (French), dated at London, 1 August in the eighteenth year, and (b) [the said sums, amounting to] 240 marks a year from the said manors, reciting the aforesaid writing indented (1); all which annuities the said Edmund is to have and receive, notwithstanding that the said manors and lordships have come into the king's hands by the death of the said earl and the minority of his son and heir.

By p.s. and for 80 marks paid in the hanaper.

Inspevimus and confirmation to the said Edmund de Mortuo Mari of letters patent (French) of the said Roger, dated at Trym, 1 November in the nineteenth year, granting to him for life the offices of chief forester and warden of his chace of Cranebourne, and chief surveyor of his parks of Blakedon, Allerholte and Tarente, and of all his other woods in his lordship of Cranebourne, with the usual fees.

For 4 mark paid in the hanaper.

Grant, in frank almoin, to John, archbishop of Armagh, and his successors, and the church of Armagh, of half an acre of land in Athboy together with the church and advowson of St. James, Athboy, which the king lately had by the gift and feoffment of the said archbishop, John Gayne, vicar of Delvyn, and John Burdevile, chaplain.

By p.s.