Membrane 35—cont.

Nov. 22.
Westminster.

Exemplification, at the request of the men of Wystone, Chadleston, Schortegrave and Childerwode, of letters patent [not found enrolled] dated at Lincoln, 14 February, 29 Edward I, being a declaration by that king that whereas the commonalty of the realm has granted a fifteenth of moveables to be taxed at Michaelmas following, the king's will is that the perambulations made before Roger le Brabazon and his fellows, appointed thereto for the forests in the county of Northampton, be observed in accordance with the mates and bounds of those perambulations. The perambulation follows, made in the forests of Saley and Wytlewode, Friday before SS. Simon and Jude, 27 Edward I. [Cf. Calendar of Patent Rolls, 1292-1301, p. 572.]

MEMBRANE 34.

Nov. 15.
Westminster.

Writ of aid for the abbot of Coggeshale, deputed by Robert, bishop of London, to collect in the archdeaconry of Colchester a moiety of the clerical tenth last granted; on information that divers ecclesiastics, religious and secular, therein, refuse payment and forcibly prevent the abbot and his deputies from levying the same.

The like for the abbot of Osneye, deputy of Henry, bishop of Lincoln, for levying the clerical tenth in the archdeaconries of Oxford and Buckingham.

1398.
Feb. 27.
Westminster.

The like for the abbot of Lessenies, deputy of William bishop of Rochester, for levying the clerical tenth in the archdeaconry of Rochester.

April 16.
Westminster.

The like for the abbot and convent of the monastery of St. Mary Graces by the Tower of London, and brethren of the house of St. Thomas Acon by the Conduit, London, deputies of Robert, bishop of London, for levying the clerical tenth in the city and archdeaconry of London.

June 18.
Westminster.

The like for the abbot and convent of the monastery of Bylegh, the said bishop's deputy for the same in the archdeaconry of Essex. (Testa Edmund, duke of York, guardian of England.)

1398.
Nov. 15.
Westminster.

Grant to William de Huxley, William de Litteloure and Hugh Bartum of the goods and chattels late of William Pertewell and William Wolleshy of Cambridge, forfeited by their outlawry in the county of Cambridge for felony.

By p.s.

Nov. 21.
Westminster.

General pardon and discharge, in consideration of his great labours and expenses in the office of treasurer of England and whilst he was with the king and his army in Ireland and Scotland, and of his meritorious services to the king from the beginning of his government, to Roger de Walden, now archbishop of Canterbury, of all actions personal, suits, or demands, debts, accounts, advances, receipts, sums of money, jewels, plate &c., adjudged due to the king; current in demand at the Exchequer, and of all liversies, payments and receipts from the treasury, wherewith he stands charged and accountable; also in respect of all tallages, subsidies or imposts upon the people without the king's authority and licence, and also in respect of acceptances of any ecclesiastical dignities and benefices contrary to statute; to include his heirs, successors, executors of his will, tenants of his lands and holders of his goods and chattels, &c. [Pedesira.]

By K.

Nov. 22.
Westminster.

Grant to the king's esquire Thomas Staunton and Thomas Christofre and John Wylton, yeomen of the chamber, of 40% of the goods and chattels late of Geoffrey Pampyng of Great Yarmouth, forfeited because he killed William atte Stathe.

By p.s.