Grant, in tail male, to the king's brother John, duke of Exeter, of the castle, town and lordship of Lewys, the manors of Cokefeld, Cletton, Dychenyng, Mechyng, Peccham, Brightelmeaston, Rottyngedon, Houndeden, Northsee, Rademeld, Kimer, Middleton, Alynton, Worth and Picoumbe the towns of Iford, Fidynghowe and Seford, with all their members in Kent, Surrey and Sussex, together with the knights' fees, reversions, advowsons, homages and services of free tenants, villeins with their villenages &c. fairs, markets, warrens, chases, parks, woods, stews, stanks, marshes, fisheries, feedings, pastures, hundreds, liberties royal and all other appurtenances thereto, late of Richard, earl of Arundel, which were given by the king on that earl's forfeiture to Thomas, duke of Norfolk, and which by reason of the judgement against the said duke at Coventry by the authority of the last Parliament are come into the king's hands.

By K.

Signification to J. bishop of Hereford, of the royal assent to the election of Thomas Astelyght, canon of Wiggemore, to be prior of Wiggemore, in the king's hand by reason of the minority of the heir of Roger de Mortuo Mari, earl of March.

Grant, during pleasure, to John Cortenhale of 4d. a day at the Exchequer.

Grant, during good behaviour, to the king's esquire William Bury of the offices of forest and 'tynbailiff' in the forest of Dertemore, co. Devon, on the surrender, for the purpose of this grant, by John Breton, usher of the chamber, of letters patent lately granting the premises to him.

Grant to the king's servants John de Adyldewe, Walter Devyok, Robert Kilby and William Whyte of 10l. of the goods and chattels of John Sexten of Melford, co. Suffolk. Robert Fuller of Stanestode in the same county, and Henry Payn of Bromle, co. Kent, forfeited to the king because Sexten and Fuller were outlawed at the suit of Robert Berneley, citizen of London, and Payn at the suit of Gerard Belhous in a plea of debt.

Licence renewed to the king's clerk John Macclesfeld, provost of the cathedral church of Wells, to cut and carry away 100 acres of wood within the metes of the forest of Nerechich, co. Somerset, releasing him from the condition of the former licence, viz. that he should enclose the said 100 acres according to the asise of the forest; because he cannot rightly do so, as the ground is and from time immemorial has been common of pasture of the adjacent country, as appears from the information of the said provost and other trustworthy persons there, but he is to leave sufficient brushwood for the deer. [Cf. p. 446.]

By K.

Grant, for life, to the king's esquire Robert Thorley of the offices of constable of the castle of Rostormell and keeper of the park there, on the surrender by Rotelin de Ostry of the letters patent granting them to him.

By p.s.

Grant, for life, to the king's servant Gerard Raes of the office of chief engrosser of the Exchequer in Ireland, to hold in person or by deputy, receiving such fees as others who held the office when the Exchequer was at Carlagh.

By p.s. [12580-]