Grant, for life, to the king's servant Edward Fauconer, messenger, of 10 marks a year out of the issues of the county of Northampton, notwithstanding the 10l. a year granted to him at the Exchequer. By p.s.

Grant to the king's esquire John Henor, who cannot, as he says, under the king's letters patent dated 15 November in the twenty-first year, obtain payment of the rents of 60s. and 40s. thereby granted (p. 184), because the same are annexed to the king's castle of Porcestre—of 100s. a year at the Exchequer, until further order or until it has been determined by the king and Council whether he ought to have the said rents in accordance with the said letters patent, or not. By p.s.

Presentation of Laurence Haukyn, chaplain, to a medity of the churches of Midon and Colynetre in the diocese of Lincoln.

Grant, in fee, to the king's servants John Wilton and William Goldeman of five cottages late of Peter Ascham, clerk, escheated to the king by his death without heir and forfeited because one John Kemle, now parson of St. Mary's atte Stronde without the Bar of the New Temple, London, and his predecessors for 60 years past have entered upon and held them in mortmain without licence. One cottage is in Holbourne and held of the king in burgage, lying in length between the common road on the south and land formerly Geoffrey Goldbiter's on the north, and in breadth between John Draper's tenement on the west and John Costantyn's on the east, the other four cottages in the parish of St. Mary's aforesaid, held in chief, lying in length between the common road on the south and land of the abbot of Westminster and Maud de Kent on the north, and in breadth between the said Maud's tenement on the east and a tenement lately Andrew Brewere's on the west. By p.s.

Grant, for life or until further order, to the king's esquire William Branspath of 20 marks a year by the hands of the bailiffs of Northampton. By p.s.

Grant, for life, to the king's servant John Hille of the office of porter of the castle of Caernervan, with 2l. a day at the exchequer of Caernervan, as received by Henry Flemmyng, deceased. By p.s.

Pardon to Richard, archbishop of York, for the escape from his gaol within his manor or palace in York, of Richard Norman, clerk convict, and of whatever pertains to the king therefor. By p.s.

Grant to John Myrmes, groom of the saucery, of 62s. 8d. in the hands of John Knyght, and 60s. in the hands of John James, farmer of Cotes, amounting to 6l. 2s. 8d. adjudged at Hampslap, 6 December in the twenty-first year, before Giles Malory, knight, and the others associated with him, to be forfeited to the king by reason of the forfeiture of Thomas, earl of Warwick. By p.s.

Grant to the king's servants Thomas Multon and John Glasier of 25l. due to the king for the escape from Northampton castle, on Saturday the eve of the Conception of St. Mary last past, of Richard Touceestre, John de Arnesby, John de Shalston, Nicholas Wode of Wotton and Robert Reve of Burgh, committed for felony.