1398.
Dec. 15. Westminster.

Exemption, for their lives, of the king's servant Thomas Stoute and Agnes, his wife, who hold of the king a 'place' in Wolwyche for a certain rent pertaining to the king's manor of Eltham, and are bound to pay 32s. year for a fair of old belonging to the said 'place,' the tenants whereby have from time immemorial been charged with that sum—from such payment; as the 'place' has been inundated by the Thames as far as Berkyng and left vacant, so that no fair could be held, but if any should be held in future, they are to account for the said sum at the manor aforesaid.

Grant to Richard de Mylington of the keepership of the park of Brunfeld during the minority of the son and heir of Roger, earl of March. By p.s.

Presentation to T. bishop of Worcester, of Richard Knawe, parson of Dalyngworth by Cirencestre, for admission to the vicarage of Cheddeworth, in the king's gift on an exchange with William Eyr.

Feb. 5. Westminster.

Presentation to the same of Master John Hauberk, prebendary of Q. in the collegiate church of St. Mary by Leicester castle, for admission to the church of Holt by Worcester, in the king's gift by reason of the judgement against Thomas, earl of Warwick, in the last Parliament; on an exchange with John Wates.

Grant, for life, to the king's esquire Richard Crowe of 7½d. a day from the treasurer of the household, for his wages both without and within the household.

Grant, for life or until further order, to Nicholas Gascoigne of the annuity of 10 marks at the Exchequer granted to John del Cassus, esquire; on the surrender by the last named of letters patent granting him that sum.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because Henry IV on 14 November in his first year granted that sum to him out of the issues of the county of York.

Grant to Pontius, lord of Châtillon (Castelbon), of the provostship of Dax, after the death of William de Montandre, knight, with the profits and emoluments pertaining thereto, together with the herbage, guidonage and hostages of the city of Bordeaux. [Fœdera.] By p.s. [12644.]

Inspectio and confirmation to Nicholas Usk, esquire and treasurer of the household of John, duke of Lancaster, and to Joan, his wife, for their lives in survivorship, of letters patent (French) of the said duke dated at his castle of Hertford, 3 December in the twenty-first year, granting to the said Nicholas—on his surrendering earlier letters patent granting him 20l. a year from the issues of the honour of Leicester—and to Joan, his wife, daughter of the duke's esquire John Norbury, upon marriage, the said sum from the same, for their lives in survivorship: and of letters patent (French) of Henry, duke of Hereford, dated at London, 9 October in the twenty-second year, inspecting and confirming the foregoing.

For 10l. paid in the hanaper.

Jan. 16. Coventry.

Grant, for life, without rent, to the king's esquire John Loufwyk, of the bailiwick of Wynchelse together with 52s. of yearly rent from the manor of Yam with the ferry there and all other fees and profits belonging to bailiwick and ferry, lately held by John Treverbyn, esquire, deceased, and all other commodities (commoditates) belonging to the king in Wynchelse or arising out of it.
