Membrane 21—cont.

Presentation of Thomas Athelyngton to the church of Llannaber in the diocese of Bangor; directed to the guardian of the spirituality sede vacante.

Feb. 11.
Westminster.
Grant, for their lives in survivorship, to the king's esquires William de Houton and William Bredewardyn of the office of constable of the castle of Drusselan, South Wales, with the keepership of the said castle and of the forest of Glynoth, co. Kermerdy, which (with annuities, revenues and profits hereby also granted) were granted to the first-named by letters patent of the king's father dated 9 June, 48 Edward III. and by the king's letters patent dated 5 June in the third year, 20 August and 25 June (rectius January) in the fourth, which are recited [Calendar, 1377-1381, pp. 498, 541 and 590].

By p.s.

Feb. 11.
Westminster.
Pardon to Robert, servant of Richard Dauntre, imprisoned in Nottingham gaol for the death of Henry de Wotton, servant of Robert Bailly, as it appears by the record of William Thirnyng and Robert Tirwhyt, justices of gaol delivery, that he killed him by misadventure.

Feb. 9.
Westminster.
Presentation of John Everdon to the church of St. Martin, Shaftesbury, in the diocese of Salisbury.

MEMBRANE 20.

Feb. 5.
Westminster.
Licence, for 10 marks paid in the hanaper by the prior of the monks of St. Mary of Thetford, for the said prior and the convent of that place to grant 10 acres of meadow and 46s. 8d. rent in Thetford, not held in chief, to the prioress and convent of Thetford and their successors, in exchange for a mill called 'Brendemelle' and 12 acres of meadow in the same place, similarly held.

Feb. 11.
Westminster.
Appointment, during pleasure of Thomas Percy to the office of controller of the subsidy of 3s. in the tun of wine and 12d. in the pound [of other merchandise] in the port of Kyngeston upon Hull, and all ports and places thence as far as Grymesby, inclusive, on the one side, and Hornese, on the other.

By bill of treasurer.

Feb. 12.
Westminster.
Licence for the alienation in mortmain by William Middelworthe, parson of Wryngton, John Vax, vicar of Asshecote, John Elys, vicar of Mere, John Panys of Pringg and John, son of Robert Coker, of the reversion, expectant on the death of Agnes, late the wife of William Canynges, of three messuages, one toft, four shops and a sollar in the suburb of Bristol, held in chief in burgage and of the yearly value of 100s. as found by inquisition taken by Thomas Knap, mayor of Bristol, escheator therein, to the abbot and convent of Glastonbury, in part satisfaction, viz. 10 marks, of the king's licence to them to acquire lands &c. to the yearly value of 40 marks.

Feb. 11.
Westminster.
Grant, for life, to Hugh Luttrell, knight, on his petition alleging that divers men by covin and undue information given to the council of the late queen Anne, who granted to him the reversion of the office of [keeper of] the forest of Gillingham with all its profits, the king confirming the same to him for life (Calendar, 1391-1396, p. 422), prevented his receiving the profits of the park there arising from the pannage, herbage, brushwood, windfalls, &c., and 4s. 1d. of yearly rent from tenants called 'wodewardes tenants,' with their services and profits of courts called 'wodecourt and swanymotes,' and estrayes taken in the said park and forest, because