1399.

Membrane 16—cont.

David Hendore, her son, have come to the king's hands, to hold from the death of the said Isabel, without rendering aught therefor as required by the aforesaid grant.

By p.s.

Feb. 7. Westminster. Presentation of John Roger, monk of the priory of Tutbury, to the priory of Modbury in the diocese of Exeter, void by the free resignation of John Michel.

By p.s.

Feb. 10. Westminster. Presentation of Thomas Athelyngton to the church of Llananaber in the diocese of Bangor; directed to the guardian of the spirituality sede vacante.

By p.s.

Mandates in pursuance to H. bishop of Lincoln, and the dean and chapter.

By p.s.

Feb. 26. Westminster. Grant to Master William de Waltham, prebendary of Donygnton in the cathedral church of St. Peter, York, of the prebend of Cave in the same church, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the archbishopric of York being lately in his hand; on an exchange with William Noion.

By K.

Mandates in pursuance to R. archbishop of York, and the dean and chapter.

By p.s.

Feb. 10. Westminster. Licence, with the assent of the Council, for William de Stirkeland, clerk, who at his own great costs is making a fortalice at Penreth on the March of Scotland, for fortifying that town and the whole adjacent country, to dig stone in Penreth-felles within the forest of Inglewode, in order to complete the said fortalice.

By p.s.

March 4. Westminster. Appointment of John Stanley, controller of the household, and Robert Witteney, knight, to provide sufficient corn, coal, wood, hay, oats and other things for the expenses of the household in Ireland for the present expedition, and carriage both in England and Ireland, within liberties and without, except in the fee of the church, at the king's charges, and to take workmen and employ them to stay there in the king's service so long as he shall stay in Ireland.

March 6. Westminster. Grant to the king's servants John Fraunceys, Robert Bounsergeant and John Duncaintele of the 40l. in which William Aysshele, Walter Fotrynggeye, Adam Parkele and John Percevale were bound to the king before the justices of the peace in Surrey on behalf of Thomas Newport that he would do no wrong to any of the king's lieges, he having subsequently killed a man.

By p.s.

March 1. Westminster. Grant, during pleasure, to the king's nephew Thomas, duke of Surrey, of the keeping of the castles of Wyglewe, Newcastle of Kenlaston, and Makennynggan in Ireland, notwithstanding any grant thereof heretofore made by the king to James Cotifyngam.

By K. on the information of William Lescrope, earl of Wiltshire.