Membrane 11—cont.

1399.

March 12. Westminster. Grant, as from Easter last, to the king’s nephew Thomas, duke of Surrey, the king’s brother John, duke of Exeter, and William Lescrope, earl of Wiltshire, of the 50l. which William de Drayton, knight, lately had by grant of the king from the rent of a moiety of the town of Coventry, co. Warwick, called ‘the Erlespart,’ payable by the prior and convent there; during the life of Elizabeth Tryvet. By p.s.

March 12. Westminster. Grant, for their lives in survivorship, to Ralph Coton and Geoffrey Iklufton, yeomen of the chamber, of 20 marks a year from the issues of Cornwall, as received by John Breton, deceased; notwithstanding the 10l. which the said Ralph receives yearly from the manor of Esttedirloë by grant of the king. By p.s.

March 18. Westminster. Grant, for their lives in survivorship, to Nicholas Munketou and John Peres, yeomen of the chamber, of the passage or ferry of Shylyngford, co. Oxford, to the yearly value of 6 marks, notwithstanding any other grant heretofore made to them by the king. By p.s.

Jan. 22. Westminster. Grant to the king’s servants John Cranmore and Thomas Goodgrome of 40 marks of the goods and chattels late of John Holman of Mere, co. Wilts, forfeited because he was outlawed in a plea of debt at the suit of Reginald Touker. By p.s.

March 14. Westminster. Presentation to R. bishop of Chichester, of John Birston, vicar of Eltham in the diocese of Rochester, for admission to the church of St. Giles, Wynchelse, on an exchange with William Tyrell.

March 17. Westminster. Licence for the sub-prior and convent of Royston to elect a prior in the room of John, the last prior, deceased, the patronage being in the king’s hand by reason of his wardship of the land and heir of Roger de Mortuo Mari, earl of March, tenant in chief.

Feb. 6. Westminster. Grant, as from the date of the judgement against John de Cobham, knight, to the wardens and comminity contributors to the maintenance of Roucheatre bridge in aid and support thereof and of three chaplains celebrating [divine service] in the chapel at the end of the bridge—of a messuage, 80 acres of land and 900 acres of marsh, with 30s. of rent in the isle of Green, and a yearly rent of 40 marks issuing out of the manor of Sharnden and a march called ‘Emleece‘ in the isle of Emluce, held by John de Cobham, knight, William Rikhull, Reginald de Cobham, clerk, Ralph de Cobham and William de Makenade by gift and grant of John de Cobham of Devon, John de Seint Ivé and John Ingram, chaplains; and also of the reversion of a messuage in Cornhelle, London, held for life by William Wangford, by demise of the same last named persons, and the reversion of the manor of Tilleyburie, co. Essex, held for life by William Sorle, by demise of the king, to whom all the premises belong by the forfeiture of the said John de Cobham, knight; and further, licence for the said William de Makenade and Stephen de Bettinghamme to alienate in mortmain to the said wardens and comminity the reversion of the manor of Langedon expectant upon the death of Alice, late the wife of Nicholas Potyn. By p.s.
