1399.

Jan. 15. Grant, for life, to John Lyndewode, clerk, of 10l. a year at the exchequer of Caernervaw from a yearly rent of 20 marks due to the king from the abbot of Burdesay; on his surrender of the like grant dated 90 July last.

April 2. Licence for William, lord de Courcy, to import into England or Ireland 2,000 bushels (?) (mussellae) of corn free of custom.

April 4. Grant, for life, to Thomas Ryvere, groom of the cellar, of 2½ marks in addition to the 100l. a year lately granted to him at the Exchequer, the whole 10 marks to be received yearly out of the issues of the counties of Surrey and Sussex.

April 4. Pardon to William Botelston, barbour, for the death of William, son of Henry Beadle of Cranhover, killed there on Sunday before Ascension day in the twentieth year.

April 8. Edward, duke of Albemarle, the king's brother, going by licence of the king to Ireland upon its defence, has letters nominating Edmund, bishop of Exeter, and the king's uncle Edmund, duke of York, his attorneys for one year.

The Chancellor received the attorneys until the return to England of the person nominating.

The said duke has the like letters nominating the following:—
William, earl of Wiltshire, and John Bussy, knight.
Henry Grene, knight, and Thomas Stanley, clerk.
Simon Gaunstede, clerk, and Robert Egerley.
Robert Wyntryngham and Thomas Overton, clerk.
Thomas Langeley, clerk, and Peter Manan.
John Skelton and John Pyarde.
John Tank and Thomas Appultrewyk.
John Mulsho.

The Chancellor received the attorneys until the return to England of the person nominating.

April 10. Richard Redman, knight, has the like letters nominating the following:—
William Gascoigne and Adam de Mirfeld.
John de Depden, knight, and Richard de Norton.
William de Thornburgh and John de Burgham.

The Chancellor received the attorneys as above.

April 12. John de Monte Acuto, earl of Salisbury, has the like letters nominating the following:—
Thomas Mounthagn, dean of Salisbury and John Deakne.
John Brokman and William Poulter.
Richard Clifford, keeper of the privy seal, and Thomas de Stanley, keeper of the rolls of Chancery.

The Chancellor received the attorneys as above.

April 14. Henry Hone, citizen and goldsmith of London, has the like letters nominating John Skelton and Henry Hone. Henry servant Hone. John Roderham, clerk, received the attorneys as above.

* In p.s. mussels.