Insiprius and confirmation to Thomas Popham, esquire, because retained to stay with the king only, of an indenture (French) between John, duke of Lancaster, and the said Thomas, dated at Ghent (Ganadc) 3 January 1386, witnessing that he is retained to serve the duke in peace and in war, for which he is to receive 10 marks a year for life from the issues of the lordship of Kyngeston, co. Dorset.

By K. and for 20s. paid in the hanaper.

April 24.
Windsor Castle.

Licence, upon the petition of the prior and canons of St. Katharine's without Lincoln, alleging that they and their predecessors from the foundation of their house have been and are parsons of the church of St. Mary Magdalene, Newerick, and from that time have held the parsonage and vicarage thereof to their own uses, and caused divine service to be celebrated for the parishioners of that church by one or two of their canons, removable at the will of the petitioners, until quite lately the Pope granted a provision to the vicarage to one of the canons for the term of his life, as appears by letters of Robert, late (upper) bishop of Lincoln, founder of their house, and by letters of Roger, late (upper) archbishop of York—that they may, after the voidance of the vicarage, hold it to their own uses, and cause divine service to be celebrated as above.
