1399.
April 26.
Westminster.

Inspeximus and confirmation to Ivo de Wyram, because retained to stay with the king only, of a writing indented (French) between John, duke of Lancaster, and the said Ivo, his esquire, dated at London, 10 June in the twentieth year, witnessing that the said Ivo is retained for life to stay with the duke to serve him in peace and in war, for which he is to receive as his fee 10 marks a year from the issues of the duke's lands in Norfolk and Suffolk.

By K. and for 26s. 8d. paid in the hanaper.

April 24.
Windsor Castle.

Pardon to the king's clerk, Master William Langebroke, of his trespass, misprision and contempt in accepting a provision of Pope Boniface [IX] to a canonry in St. Peter's, York, and in Lincoln and Salisbury cathedral churches, to expectations of three prebends in those three churches and to a dignity, notwithstanding its being elective, in one of them; and licence for him in person or by his proctors to sue execution of the said provision and graces, notwithstanding the statute of provisors of the thirteenth year or any other.

By p.s.

April 29.
Palace of Westminster.

Grant, for life, to William de Juliaco, duke of Mons (Monte) because retained for life to serve the king in war with a certain number of armed men, as by indentures between proctors of the king and the duke in presence of the Council plainly appears, and for doing homage to the king in due form, of 1,000l. a year at the Exchequer; on condition that he faithfully fulfil certain contracts and agreements and all things contained in the said indentures. [Fiderea.]

By K.

April 26.
Westminster.

Grant, for life, to John de Veer of Brittany, knight, because retained for life to stay with the king, of 600 crowns of gold a year at the Exchequer. (V. Membrane 25.)

By K.

April 24.
Windsor.

Grant, on his petition, to Thomas, son and heir of Rhys ap Griffith, knight, tenant in chief, that he have full and general livery of all the lands, tenements, fees, advowsons and other possessions, which have descended to him by the death of his father or any other ancestor, and which have been or ought to be seized into the king's hands by reason of his minority, as by inquisitions in divers counties of England after the death of the said Rhys, and by one under a writ de stato probanda, he has been found to be of full age; notwithstanding his having been found, by any inquisitions so taken, to be not of full age.

By K.

April 24.
Windsor Castle.

Discharge, on his petition, of John de Skelton, esquire, from the payment to the king's servant Robert Kendale of 8l. a year for the close of Morton in Inglewode forest, granted in the first instance by the king to the said Robert for life without rent, by letters patent subsequently cancelled by reason of the agreement between Edward, duke of Albemarle, and the said Robert, whereupon the king by other letters patent granted the premises together with other closes, which Ralph de Neville, now earl of Westmorland, held for the term of nine years, to the duke, for life, on the determination of that term, he paying 7l. yearly to the king and 8l. to the said Robert, and which subsequently the king with the duke's assent granted to the said John de Skelton for life on the same terms; the said Robert being willing to discharge him from the said payment.

By p.s.

April 17.
Westminster.

Licence for Robert Hereward, chaplain, and William Lywer—in consideration of their devotion, with other people, in long maintaining a chaplain to celebrate divine services in the parish church of St. John Baptist, Hatherleigh, co. Devon, and their desire that the chantry should be continued—to establish a perpetual fraternity and gild in the said