and for the appropriation thereof in mortmain by them, for praying for the good estate of the king and the said bishop, for their souls after death, and for the souls of the bishop's parents, and for keeping the anniversaries of the king and bishop and the bishop's parents, and for supporting other works of piety, according to the bishop's ordinance; and licence for the dean and chapter to serve the said church in future with one secular chaplain, provided a proper sum be by the ordinary ordained to be distributed among the poor parishioners. By K.

Pardon, at the supellation of the king's physician Master John Midelton, master of the hospital of St. Nicholas, York, to the said master, and the brethren and sisters of the hospital, of the forfeiture of lands and tenements in York of the yearly value, in all, of 8 marks, 2s. 8d. alienated to them without licence in mortmain, viz. a messuage in Skyndergate, value 16s. by Hugh de Myton, citizen of York, to William Coushey, chaplain, and another in Laumlith on Byssphullke, value 13s. 4d.; another in Fysshergate, value 26s. 8d. by Robert Skelton and John Guysebourne to John Lawton and William Thorne, chaplains, to the use of the said master and brethren and sisters, three selions of land lying near the hospital in Fysshergate and two selions lying near 'Stuartsholm myne' in the suburbs of York, value 3s. by Robert Laybourn, a tenement in Walthegate, value 5s. by William Rad-stan, chaplain, another in the same street, value 12s. and another in Mykylgate, value 30s. 4d.; and grant to them of the premises in frank almoni, notwithstanding that they are held of the king in free burgage.

Licence, at the same supplication, for the alienation in mortmain to the said master, brethren and sisters, of lands, tenements and rents to the yearly value of 20l. in aid of the maintenance of divine service in the hospital for ever.

Licence, at the supellation of the king's clerk Thomas de Stanley, dean of the king's free chapel of St. Martin le Grand, London, and in consideration of the non-execution, so far as relates to the appropriation of the church, of the king's former grant to John Bacon, then secretary to the king and dean of the said chapel, of the advowson of Basyngbourn, pa nel of the county and lordship of Richemond, for the said dean and chapter to appropriate the same in mortmain for the maintenance of certain charges in the said chapel according to the dean's ordinance, notwithstanding that any person has been prevented to the said church; since the said first grant thereof; and for the further security of the dean and chapter, licence for the king's brother John, duke of Brittany, now earl of Richemond, and Joan, his sister, late the wife of Ralph Dasset, of Drayton, knight, Antony Rice and Nicholas Alderwyck, to whom the king lately granted and confirmed the county, castle, town and honour of Richmond, with all their appurtenances, including advowsons, to remit, release and quitclaim to the said dean and chapter for ever all their right and claim in the said advowson. (Testa Custodi.) By p.s.

Safe conduct, until Michaelmas, at the supellation of the king's kinsmans the duke of Rothezay, for John Spershot, esquire, and John Feller, yeoman, lately living with Thomas de Mortymer, knight, deceased.

By signet letter.