Membrane 8.

Sept. 30.  Appointment of the prior of Rochester to collect in the bishopric of Rochester the moiety of benefices and goods according to the taxation, whereon the last tenth in aid of the Holy Land was granted to the king by the clergy, which moiety the clergy have granted the king for the present year, to be levied on all benefices, with the exception of those not exceeding the yearly value of ten marks and not held by persons holding several benefices; the first third to be collected at All Saints' next, the second at a fortnight after Easter and the third at a fortnight after Midsummer, and the money is to be kept in a safe place ready for payment when required.

The like of the following persons in the respective bishoprics:—

Hereford, the dean and chapter of Hereford.
Landaff, the abbot of Morgan.
St. Asaph, the abbot of Aberconewey.
Bangor, the bishop and chapter of Bangor.
St. David's, the prior of Lanthony Prima and Kaermerdyn.
Lincoln, the abbot of Oseneye, and the prior of St. Catherine without Lincoln.
Norwich, the priors of St. Edmund's and Wymundebham.
Ely, the priors of Ely and Bernewell.
Coventry and Lichfield, the abbot of Burton-on-Trent, and the prior of Kenylworth.
Durham, the prior of Durham.
Carlisle, the prior of Whetenhole.
Chichester, the dean and chapter of Chichester.
Worcester, the abbot of Gloucester.
York, the prior of Thurgarton, the abbot of Seleby, the abbot of St. Mary's, York, and the abbot of Furnays.
Exeter, the dean of Exeter, collector of the chapter, the abbot of Tavystok, collector in the county of Coruwall, and the prior of St. Nicholas', Exeter.
Bath and Wells, the abbot of Glastonbury.
Canterbury, the abbot of Faversham.
Salisbury, the abbots of Radyng' and Shireburn.
Winchester, the abbots of Certeseeye and Hide, Winchester.

Sept. 27.  Protection with clause nolamus, for one year, in favour of the persons and goods of the prelates and clergy, as they have granted the king for the present year a moiety of their benefices and goods, according to the taxation last made for a tenth for the Holy Land.

The like for the following prelates:—

J. archbishop of York.
R. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield.
G. bishop of Worcester.
J. bishop of Winchester.
O. bishop of Lincoln.
R. bishop of London.
Thomas, bishop of Rochester.
J. bishop of Carlisle.
R. bishop of Hereford.
R. bishop of Norwich. [Fadera.]

Sept. 28.  The like for the abbot of St. Augustine's, Canterbury, as the rest of the exempted abbots, who have granted the like moiety, also have it.