April 15.
Tower of London.

Pardon, at the request of Arnold de Duro Forti, to Reynund le personeshailif of Leghton Busard, Arnold Vitalles, John Aspect, chaplain, John Becon, William Barbour of Leghton Busard, Roger son of Eduand le Despensor, Henry Talilour and William Gardener, of what pertains to the king for a robbery whereof they were lately appealed by William Portevarri. By K.

Acknowledgement of the king’s indebtedness to John Baronsliel, Guy Donati and John Juntyn and the other merchants of the society of the Peruzzi of Florence, in 3666l. 13s. 4d. lent for the furtherance of some urgent matters; and promise to pay 1000l. on the octave of Midsummer and the balance on the morrow of Michaelmas or at All Saints, out of the tenth and fifteenth granted to him by the commonalty of the realm and the citizens and burgesses thereof.

By K.

Mandate in pursuance to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer.

The like with respect to 1000l. lent by the same merchants, to be repaid out of the old custom in the port of London by three instalments of 500 marks at Michaelmas in this and the two following years.

By K.

Mandate in pursuance to the collectors of the said custom.

Memorandum, that these letters were surrendered, and because the collectors certified the king In his Chancery that they could not pay the sum because the cocket seal by the king’s command is closed in the said city, the king under date of 25 February in his eleventh year commanded the treasurer and chamberlains to pay the 1000l. out of the tenth and fifteenth granted to him at Nottingham.

April 10.
Waltham.

Exemplification of a charter dated 2 March, 51 Henry III., and witnesses by Robert Agnylon, Elias de Rabayne, William de Wyntereshull, Benedict de Blakeham, Ralph de Bakepuz, Stephen de Ededewrth, William de Faulkham, Roger de Wauton and others, being an inspeiximus of (1) Charter of Henry I. to this effect; H. king of England to all bishops, abbots, earls, barons, sheriffs and his lieges of France and England, and to ministers in whose ministries Robert son of Walter de Wyndosor held land on the day whereon he was alive and dead Greeting. Know ye that I have granted to William son of the said Robert all the land whereof his father was seised at his death, and I will and firmly charge that he and his men hold the same, within burgh and without, in wood and plain, in water and without, and in all other places with soc, sac, tol, teame, infangenethef and all other customs as fully as his father or any ancestor ever held it: witnesses, Robert de Haia, Drogo de Monte, William Peur’ Dour’, Payn Peur’, Geoffrey son of Payn, William Molotranso, Maurice de Wyndesore, Peur’ de Bello Campo, William son of John, at Archentein, Christmas Day:

(2) Confirmation of the said grant by Henry II.: witnesses, earl Reginald, R., earl of Leicester, H., earl of Norfolk, H. de Essexo, constable, Richard de Hum[eto], constable, Jocelin de Baillol, at Westminster. (3) Grant by Richard I. to Henry de Cornhill of Delicia, daughter and heir of Robert de Hastinges, with all her land and inheritance, whom king Henry his father granted to the said Henry, with her inheritance, to marry her at his will and to hold her inheritance in wood and plain, meadows and pastures, waters, mills and marshes, stews and mill-ponds, tofts and crofts, ways and paths and in all others places and things within burgh and without, quit of all gilds, danegelds, murders, pleas and plaints of shires and hundreds, lasts and wapentakes aids of sheriffs and their Serjeants, arnaercement of county and all occasions and customs, with soc, sac, tol, teame, infangenethef and all other liberties and free customs: witnesses, H. bishop of Durham, G. bishop of Winchester, H. bishop of Salisbury, John, earl Moretain, John the Marshal, William his brother, Hugh Bard, Geoffrey son of Peter, Warin son of Ger[fol], Henry de Lendo Campo, Stephen his brother,