Membrane 15.

June 28. Walton.
Pardon to Brian de Lynacre for the rape of Elizabeth late the wife of Thomas son of Gervase Fraunkeleyn, on condition that he stand his trial if Elizabeth wish to impeach him of the rape. By p.s.

July 8. Walton.
Protection with clause volumus, until Christmas, for John, duke of Brittany and earl of Richmond, staying beyond the seas on the king's service. By bill of privy seal.

June 28. Walton.
By letters patent the king lately granted licence for the alienation in mortmain by John Caproun to the guardian and Friars Minors of Coleestre of a plot of land held of the abbot and convent of St. John's, Coleestre, by the rent of 3s. and for the release to them by the abbot and convent of the said rent. At the request of the guardian and Friars and in consideration of the said release, he grants licence for the alienation in mortmain by the said John to the said abbot and convent of 3s. of rent out of a message in le North Strete in Coleestre. By p.s.

July 9. Walton.
Grant to Henry de Ferrariis, to whom the king has promised 400 marks yearly of land and rent in tail, male, and in pursuance of such promise has granted the manor of Rysebergh Earl's, co. Buckingham, as of the yearly value of 90l. and the remaining 265 marks at the Exchequer, to wit, 45 marks until the reversion of the manor of Walton expectant on the demise of queen Isabella, 60 marks until the reversion of the manor and town of Newport, co. Essex, expectant on the demise of Margaret wife of Hugh de Audele, earl of Gloucester, and sometime wife of Peter de Gavaston, earl of Cornwall, fall in, and 160 marks until he or the heir male of his body should receive an equivalent of land and rent, of the manors of Arle, co. Salop, and Tetenhale, co. Stafford, and the reversions of the castle and manor of Bulkedenas and the castles of Blenleveny and Newcastle in the land of Emelyn, expectant on the demise of Gilbert Talbot, and of the manor of Claverle expectant on the demise of William de Shareshull, to hold with the knight's fees and advowsons of churches pertaining to the said manors of Arle and Tetenhale and to the castle and manor of Bulkedenas and the manor of Claverle to him and the heir male of his body of the king and other lords of those fees by the accustomed services in part or full satisfaction of the 160 marks. If it should be found by extents that the castles and manors are of greater value than that sum, the surplus is to be answered to the king at the Exchequer yearly. By p.s.

Writ de intendeando in pursuance to the tenants of the said manor of Tetenhale.

- The like to those of the manor of Arle.
- The like to Gilbert Talbot.
- The like to William de Shareshull.

July 8. Walton.
Appointment, after security found by them before the king, of the mayor and burgesses of the town of Lynn to the custody of their town, during pleasure, to preserve it against attacks of enemies, with power to levy a subsidy on those dwelling within the town according to their ability for their defence; without prejudice to liberties granted to A. bishop of Norwich or his predecessors by royal charters. By K.

July 10. Walton.
Whereas the king by letters patent lately granted to William de Kesteven, king's clerk, the extent of 7l. 13s. 4d. of the lands of William de Hedresete in Northymmes [and] the city of London, due by the latter at the Exchequer yearly for arrears of his account of the time when he was a collector of the great custom in the said city, until the arrears were paid off, and whereas