Membrane 23—cont.

1346.
June 28.
Porchester.

Ratification of the estate of Master Paul de Monte Florum, king's clerk, as prebendary of Southcave, in the church of St. Peter, York, by provision of the apostolic see. By p.s.

Whereas Edward II, by letters patent, granted to the thirteen chaplains and four clerks of his chapel in the park of Wyndesore that every time that he or the queen or their heirs should be at his manor in the park they and their successors should be admitted as partakers of the meals at the table of the hall of him, the queen or their heirs, or should have their liversies of meat and drink; now that the said chantry is removed to Wyndesore Castle, the present king has granted to the eight chaplains celebrating divine service in his chapel in the castle, and two clerks serving in the chapel, that every time that he, his queen or their heirs stay in the castle they and their successors shall be admitted to the table of the hall or have their liversies as above, and that they shall receive all oblations brought to the said chapel or offered therein, in like manner as they used to receive such oblations in the chapel in the park. By p.s.

June 20.
Porchester.

Whereas Edward II, by letters patent, granted licence for the alienation in mortmain by John de Bradcroft to the abbot and convent of Dureford of a moiety of the manor of Compton by Gildeford with the advowson of the church of Compton, the present king as a further grace has granted licence for the abbot and convent to appropriate the said church. By p.s.

June 10.
Porchester.

Whereas the king, by letters patent, granted for life to John de Bradeston, king's yeoman, 26 marks yearly out of the farm of the hundred of Irchingfeld, and afterwards by other letters patent granted the hundred in fee to Richard de Talbot in exchange for certain land, whereby John cannot receive the said 26 marks; he has granted to him that he shall receive the same out of the issues of the county of Hereford. By p.s.

June 18.
Porchester.

Whereas Edmund de Thorpe, tenant of a moiety of the manor of Combes, held in chief, by his deed manumitted John Adgor, bondman of that moiety, with all his issue, and granted to him and Ascelina, his wife, a messuage, 38½ acres of land, 1½ acre of meadow, 1 acre of pasture, a rood of wood and 8 acres of alder wood, in Combes, held of the said Edmund as of the said moiety in villeinage, to hold to them and the heirs of their bodies by the rent of 12s. and doing suit at the court of the said Edmund of Combes every three weeks, with successive remainders in tail to Henry, son of the said John, to Ralph, brother of the said Henry, to John, brother of the said Ralph, to Emma, sister of the said John, and to Isabel, sister of the said Emma, and reversion to Edmund and his heirs, without obtaining the king's licence for this; in consideration of a fine made by John Adgor, the king has pardoned the trespasses herein, confirmed the said manumission, and granted licence for him and Ascelina to retain the premises in tail, with remainders as above. By p.s.

June 5.
Porchester.

Pardon, at the request of Ralph, bishop of Bath and Wells, to Roger Brikebek, late his steward, of the king's suit against him for all manner of felonies, receiving of felons, trespasses, extortions, maintaining of false quarrels, deception, false action, false covin, double dealings, champerties and excesses (as above): also of all amercements and issues forfeit for non-appearance to answer touching the foregoing. By p.s.