The like to Matthias de Hastinges of the counties of Surrey and Sussex, the castle of Gildeford and the farms of Suthwerk and Gildeford; so that he answer for the corpus of the said counties, and further render 60l. yearly for the profit of the said counties and keep the said counties and castle at his own charges so long as he have the keeping.

Mandate to Roger de Loges to deliver to him the said counties, castle and farms.

Grant to Robert de Nevill of the marriage of the heirs of Henry de la Vale who held in chief.

Exemption for life, at the instance of Henry son of Richard king of Almain, of Walter de Esthalle from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, and from being made sheriff &c. against his will.

May 13. Commitment to Robert de Ufford of the hundred of Saunford, co. Suffolk, to keep during pleasure, rendering at the exchequer yearly as much as other keepers have rendered.

Mandate to the sheriff of Suffolk to deliver it to him.

May 15. Inspeximus and confirmation of letters patent sealed with the seals of Master Constantine, archdeacon of Subbyry, and Peter de Wintonia, appointed by the king and O. cardinal deacon of St. Adrian’s, the papal legate, to audit the account of the tenth granted by the pope in divers dioceses of the province of Canterbury, dated at Westminster, pridie Idus Maii, 54 Henry III, notifying that H. bishop of Ely, who made fine for the tenth on the spiritual and temporal goods of ecclesiastical persons in the city and diocese of Ely for the three years of the grant, rendered account before them, by Master Alan de Rokelund, official of Ely, and Nicholas de Ware, clerk of the bishop, of the 1,200l. whereby he made fine, and after audit of it with reasonable expenses and allowances to be allowed at the will of the king and council as well for himself as the whole clergy, satisfied the king of the said amount; and that they accordingly acquitted him and his clergy of the tenth.

Mandate to the sheriff of Cambridge, as the king has several times commanded him, whenever requested by the said Master Alan and Nicholas, to levy the arrears of the said tenth within liberties and without.

Inspeximus and confirmation of letters patent under the seals of the said Master Constantine, archdeacon of Subbyry, and Peter de Wyntonia, auditors of the tenth as above, dated at Westminster in the wardrobe in 54 Henry III, notifying that William, dean of Lincoln and master Roger de Ravelyngham, archdeacon of Huntindon, who compounded for the whole tenth of the three years of the grant on the church and diocese of Lincoln, rendered account before them of 9,266l. 13s. 4d. by which they compounded, and on audit of that account and allowance of payments made, the expenses of the first year and all other contingencies, according to the bond of the said dean deposited in the wardrobe, which is to be restored to him when they have paid 256l. 13s. 4d. still remaining to be paid to certain merchants; and that they acquitted them in respect of the said account.