Nov. 4. Licence, for 100s. paid in the hanaper, for Beatrice, late the wife of Westminster, Thomas Coggeshale, esquire, tenant in chief of Henry V, to marry whom she will of the king’s faith and allegiance.

Nov. 18. Grant, during pleasure, by advice and assent of the council, to William Kemp of the office and custody of the king’s wardrobe within his palace of Westminster, with the wages of 6d. a day and 18s. 4d. for a robe at the Exchequer, and the house and garden to the said office belonging. By p.s.

Nov. 12. Inspeccimus and confirmation, by advice of the great council, of letters patent, tested by John de Stanley, lieutenant of Ireland, at Dublin, 25 October, 1 Henry V, inspecting and confirming letters patent, dated 13 July, 2 Henry IV, granting to William de Stokynbryg of Lancastre, the office of second engrosser (secundi grossorii) of the exchequer of Ireland. By p.s.

Nov. 29. Thomas, baron of Carewe, staying in England, has letters nominating Westminster, Thomas Flemmyng, knight, and Richard Bathe, clerk, his attorneys in Ireland for one year. John Hertilpole, clerk, received the attorneys.

Nov. 3. Commission, during pleasure, to John Herteshull to take and provide Westminster the necessary carriage for the household.

By bill of the steward of the household.

Nov. 24. Inspeccimus and confirmation, by advice of the great council, of letters patent (French) of the king’s father, when prince of Wales, dated at Westminster, 27 November, 11 Henry IV, being a grant for life to Stephen Frenshe, the prince’s servitor, and Margaret Tyntayn, provided they intermarry, of all the lands and tenements which belonged to John Crystelton, in the prince’s city of Coventre, on surrender by the said Stephen in the prince’s chancery, of a grant to him for life of the same.

By p.s.

Dec. 3. The king’s father on 17 July, 10 Henry V, by letters patent, by manumission of Thomas Brokel and John Agtyon, both of the county of York, committed to John Cerff the custody of all the lands and tenements which belonged to Thomas Hebbourne, deceased, tenant in chief of the king’s said father, from the date of the death of the said Thomas, during the minority of John, his son and heir, together with the marriage of the same John, and in the event of his dying a minor leaving an heir under age, the said John Cerff was to have the custody and marriage of such heir, and so from heir to heir till one attained his age and the said John Cerff had realised such marriage, paying to the king’s said father for the said custody and marriage a sum to be agreed on with the treasurer of England. The said John Cerff has now surrendered the above grant to the intent that Thomas Holden, esquire, should have the said custody by grant of the present king, who grants it to him accordingly, on the like terms, he to pay for it and the marriage, 11 marks in hand.

Dec. 3. Grant, by advice of the council, during pleasure, to John Rysby, king’s messenger, of the office of keeper of the palace called ‘Princepsalloys,’ at Westminster, with the usual fees and wages at the hands of the receiver general of the principality of Wales.

Vacated because surrendered, the king on 15 October, 11 Henry VI, having re-grant ed the said office to the said John.