MEMORANDUM 13.

1397.

Sept. 28.
Westminster.

Grant, for life, by the service of a rose yearly in lieu of all services, to the king's brother Edward, earl of Rutland, of the castle and town of Clone with the land and lordship of Cloneaston in the Welsh March, and the hundred of Yosselowe annexed to the lordship, with all the members and rights thereto appertaining and all regalities, liberties, franchises, free customs, knights' fees, advowsons, &c., as held by Richard, late earl of Arundel, and forfeited by virtue of the judgement against him in the present Parliament, on condition that the grantee do homage to the king as duke (nobis tanquam duci) of Chester according to the custom of the realm.

By p.s. [11422.]

Oct. 2.
Westminster.

Presentation of Robert Keyson to the church of Upmynster in the diocese of London.

By p.s.

Sept. 10.
Westminster.

Grant, for life or until further order, to the king's knight John de Beaufort of 100 marks a year from the issues of the castle and lordship of Walyngford, co. Berks, instead of at the Exchequer, as granted to him by letters patent dated 7 June in the fifteenth year, now surrendered.

By p.s.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because the king granted that sum to the said John by the name of "John, marquess of Dorset," from the said issues, as above, but omitting the clause 'until further order,' 30 August in his twenty-second year.

Sept. 30.
Westminster.

Grant, for life, to Richard Donyngton of the office of parker of Eyton park in Wales, which belongs to the king on account of the forfeiture of Richard, earl of Arundel, deceased.

By p.s. [11454.]

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because, on 12 November in the present year, the king granted to him as above with 3d. a day for wages.

Sept. 28.
Westminster.

Grant, in tail male, to the king's brother Edward, earl of Rutland, of the manor of Brestwyk in Holderness, as fully as Thomas, late duke of Gloucester, heretofore held the same by the king's grant.

By p.s.

Oct. 1.
Westminster.

Grant, for life, to the king's servant Robert Holt of the duchy of Chester, of the office of porter of the abbey of St. Mary, York.

By p.s.

Oct. 4.
Westminster.

Grant, for their lives in survivorship, to John de Overton and Joan, his wife, of the manor of Lonarton, co. York, which William, late archbishop of Canterbury, and other feoffees to the use of Thomas, then archbishop of York, granted and confirmed to the said John and Joan 3 May in the nineteenth year, with the consent of the said Thomas, and which is forfeited by virtue of the judgement in the last Parliament against the said Thomas; together with the issues and profits from that date, without rendering aught due to the king therefor.

By p.s.

Oct. 5.
Westminster.

Appointment, so long as the temporalities of the archbishopric of Canterbury remain in the king's hand, of William Clyderowe as bailiff of the town of Romeneye, co. Kent, and its whole franchise, in the king's hand by reason of the judgement in Parliament against Thomas, archbishop of Canterbury.

By bill of treasurer.

Oct. 4.
Westminster.

Grant to John Hale, one of the clerks of the king's chapel, of the wardenship of the hospital of St. John and St. Mary Magdalen, Blechelow, in the parish of Ricardes Castel in the diocese of Hereford.
