Membrane 34—cont.

Licence, for 1 mark paid in the hanaper, and because the letters patent dated 1 July in the fifteenth year have not taken effect, for Robert de Haldanby to found a chantry of one chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the chapel of St. Mary within the house (mansum) of the said Robert at Haldanby for the soul of John de Waltham, sometime bishop of Salisbury, and for the souls of the said Robert's father and mother, and for the alienation in mortmain by him of three messuages, one toft, one bovate and half an acre of land, four acres of moor and 100s. of rent in Haldanby and Estoft to the said chaplain and his successors. [Calendar, 1388-1392, p. 466.]

Nov. 27. Westminster.

Grant, during good behaviour, to the king's servant Thomas Cousele of the offices of coroner and attorney of the king in the [Common] Bench.

By p.s. [12513.]

MEMBRANE 39.

Grant, for life, to the king's servant Gerard de Raes of the office of chief engrosser of the Exchequer, Ireland, to hold in person or by sufficient deputy, with the usual fees, as received by William Bolton whilst the said Exchequer was at Carlagh.

Vacated because otherwise this year.

Grant, with the assent of the Council and in full satisfaction of the 700 marks a year lately granted to him when made an earl, to Thomas, earl of Worcester, in tail male, of 1817. 10s. a year at the Exchequer, until that sum is assigned to him in some other place.

By p.s.

Wry of aid for Robert Arnold, deputy in the ports of Wynchelse and Rye of Thomas de Brounflote, chief butler.

By bill of the said chief butler.

Confirmation to Thomas Brokhulle of his possession of a messuage and five acres of land in Littlechert, parcel of the manor of Littlechert alienated by Robert, late prior of Christ Church, Canterbury, to John Sarryndenn and Margery, his wife, without licence of the king, who upon forfeiture therefore granted the same to Thomas, late archbishop of Canterbury, and his successors, and also granted licence to the said chaplain to alienate it to the said Brokhulle, in fee simple: notwithstanding the later forfeiture by virtue of the judgement in Parliament against the archbishop in the twenty-first year.

By p.s.

Presentation to H. bishop of Norwich, of John Carter, parson of St. Andrew's, Cornhill, London, for admission to the church of Cantel in his diocese, on an exchange with William Gilton.

By p.s.

Pardon to Thomas Buseshe for the murder of John Mukkulleston, servant of Thomas Craue, at Whithaxford on Tuesday, 8 May in the nineteenth year.

The like, under the same date, to John, son of Hugh Bayly.

By p.s.

Oct. 27. Westminster.

Walter Aylwyn, citizen and fishmonger of London, staying in England, has letters nominating Peter Stoneham, esquire, and Walter Cognore, citizen of Waterford, his attorneys in Ireland for one year.

John Rome, clerk, received the attorneys.

Presentation of Thomas Alcestre to the church of Preston upon Stoure in the diocese of Worcester, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien priory of Durhurst being in his hand.